Portland Beavers Stretch Lead to Five Full Games

(By the Associated Press)

Portland Beavers stretched their lead to five full games today after winning their sixth in a row while the runner-up Seattle Rainiers were splitting a twin bill with the San Francisco Seals.

The Beavers' 86 victory over the Hollywood Stars last night not only was their sixth straight, but their 14th out of 19 in the last three weeks.

Only by hitting such a hot pace has Portland been able to maintain its comfortable first-place margin, since the Rainiers have been speeding along at the same rate—taking 15 out of 20. The Seals slowed up Seattle 5-1 in their Thursday curtain raiser but dropped the regulation nightcap 10-4.

Sacramento's Beasley, top hurler of the circuit, won his eighth against one defeat as the Seals beat the Los Angeles Angels 6-4. Oakland set down the San Diego Padres 6-3 to complete the night's schedule.

Pulford, the Beavers' leading moundsman, squeezed through for his 16th triumph on the year as the Stars took it on the chin in the third consecutive tilt at Portland. A commanding 7-1 lead was all that saved him, however, as Hollywood found him for five runs in the last two innings. Both clubs rapped out 12 hits.

Seward outlasted Turpin in San Francisco's 5-1 first game victory over Seattle. Both pitchers were trying for their ninth win of the season. The Rainiers never left the issue in doubt in the finale, exploding for eight runs off Ken Miller and relief hurler Oliver during the first frame. Glenn Elliott pitched steady ball for win no. 9.

Forest Fire Checked At Glenwood's Border.
