DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

The possession of the Christian virtues is never the result of thoughtlessness. Christian personality is developed through obedience to the laws of the spirit. One of which is to contemplate the good, the pure, and the beautiful. Paul writes, "Whatever things are pure, lovely, of good report, think on these things." What one thinks or fails to think has a great influence upon his personality. Too often we simply allow our minds to wander undirected, or give them over to consideration of unworthy matters. Yet thinking is one of the high privileges of men. And to think upon the deep things of the spirit is the sacred duty of Christians. To have noble and pure thoughts as constant companions is to fill the heart and mind with holy aspirations and to make our conversation worthy of the Gospel, for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

"From things a man must learn to do. If he would make his record true. To think without confusion clearly. To love his fellowmen sincerely. To act from honest motives purely. To trust in God and Heaven securely."

—Henry Van Dyke.

Child's Curiosity Traps Him in Fireplace Flue

OAKLAND, Calif., July 20.—(AP)—No one had better tell six-year-old Jesse Lamar Tolliver, Jr., that story about Santa Claus and his arrival via chimney for awhile. Young Tolliver was examining a chimney in a partially constructed house yesterday when he slipped and fell into it, dropping 14 feet. He was lodged in the fireplace flue for 20 minutes while firemen worked to rescue him.
