BESIDE the railroad, mile on mile, runs a row of solid concrete posts, some three feet square, about four feet high and set deeply in the soil.

AND so on to London, and into the teeth of the question that stares every traveler in the face in every waking moment in these upset days: "How about a place to sleep?"

Those letters and dashes and exclamation points are intended to denote a long and quivering sigh of relief. The messenger is there, and reports that everything is lovely, with the room all nailed down and the nails clinched.

When the regiment was defeated on Biak Island in May, 1944, the regimental commander, Col. Kusume Naoyuki, burned the center of the regimental colors in traditional ceremony and committed hara-kiri before his men.

He adds a cryptic remark: "Meanwhile make yourself at home, sir. The bar is just across the lobby."

JAPAN'S PUNISHMENT

By Charles V. Stanton

Every judge of a criminal court has had the experience, while conducting arraignment of a prisoner charged with crime, of having the defendant ask what penalty would be imposed if he should plead guilty.

Thus our courts furnish us an example of what is meant by unconditional surrender, a term which is causing much debate in view of peace feelers extended by Japan.

It is a common practice in our courts to temper the punishment of a criminal who freely admits his crime, thus saving the cost and time of a trial.

She must know that defeat is certain. When American warships prowled her coastline and tossed shells into her centers of war production, penetrating deep into her bays to wreak destruction upon her factories, while unchallenged warplanes fill her skies and rain bombs upon helpless, driven populations, Japan should understand that her dream of expansion by force has been shattered.

We believe it would be good policy, despite court precedent, if a new and severe punishment should be proclaimed against Japan every day the fight is prolonged.

Japan is fearful Russia may join in the struggle. She knows the practical Russians will not consent to an "easy" peace, and we believe it safe to predict that Japan will surrender quickly when signs point to entrance of Russia into the Pacific war.

Jap Flag Yielded To 162nd in Fight Is Gift to Oregon

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 2 (AP)—Scorched remnants of the Japanese 22nd Infantry regimental flag delivered to the 162nd Infantry (Oregon), 41st division, by a surrendering Japanese sergeant "for safekeeping," are in the office of the Oregon adjutant general today.

The staff and colors were sent to Brig. Gen. Raymond F. Olson, acting adjutant general, by Maj. Gen. Jens A. Doe, commanding general of the 41st division, who explained that "regimental colors are not just a symbol to the Japanese, but are a sacred possession, loss of which is as great a disgrace as there is in their military tradition."

forces for their safe-keeping." Cannibalism occurs. Included in the captive sergeant's statement were references to grave of Japanese soldiers opened by night so that the bodies could be removed, salted and carried as rations.

Friday night's edition of Freedom of Opportunity gives a timely salute to General James H. Doolittle, so check 9:30 as a time not to be missed. There is a good fight on tap for you tomorrow night, too. Willie Joyce meets Tippy Larkin in a ten-round mixed-weight battle during the 8 and 9 broadcast.

Beavers Win Two From Stars; Turpin Downs Seals, 6 to 1

By PAUL WELLS

Associated Press Sports Writer Hollywood's Stars, who have been "brothers-in-law" all season to Portland, laid down and played dead again last night as the pace-setting Beavers swept a twin bill 3-4 and 5-2 to stretch their Pacific Coast league lead to six games.

Seattle's Rainiers, fighting to stay within firing distance of the Beavers, took a 1-0 defeat in a straight from the San Francisco Seals 6-1.

Portland got off to a 5-0 lead in the first four innings of the abbreviated curtain raiser against Hollywood, belting Pitches Mishack for seven hits, four of them extra bases.

Warmer Hal Turpin of the Rainiers chalked up his tenth victory of the season in beating San Francisco 6-1. The Seals pushed over an unearned tally in the sixth, the first run they had scored in 24 innings.
