Yugoslav Rule by Tito Repudiated By Youthful King

LONDON, Aug. 9 — (AP)— Youthful King Peter of Yugoslavia repudiated the government of Premier Marshal Tito last night and accused him of dictating to the people of Yugoslavia the way they should vote in an election to determine the future constitution of the country.
He issued a proclamation from his official residence proclaiming that the regents appointed to represent him had failed to fulfill their oaths and obligations. The proclamation withdrew authority he vested in the regents.
Tito told the Yugoslav national congress Tuesday that Peter would not be allowed to return to Yugoslavia because Gen. Mihalovic and Milan Nedie had acted in the king's name during the German occupation.
Peter declared he could not give his personal sanction to a state of affairs "which is abhorrent to me."
"From this moment, the duty of defending the constitutional rights of the people reverts to me," he said.
