Menagerie, Mirth Offer Abundant Entertainment at Circus Dated Here

Replete with new features and many famous circus acts, C. R. Montgomery Wild Animal circus comes to Roseburg Friday, Aug. 17, bringing the largest traveling zoo and menagerie on this continent.

Limited space precludes individual mention of all the many strange and interesting animals, suffice to say that the thousands who have attended this circus agree that the menagerie alone is well worth many times the small admission charge of the entire circus.

But the menagerie is only the beginning, for, acrobats, gymnasts, athletes, equestrians, clowns and what not in plethoric plentitude cram and jam the nearly two-hour performance with the complete gamut of circus thrillers and wonders.

Two complete performances will be given here, one at 2 and one at 8 P. M. with the doors opening at 1 and 7 P. M. to allow ample time to visit the great menagerie.

The circus will be set up at the Riverside school grounds, just north of the city limits.

Oregonians Fraised by Snell for Aid in War

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 16—(AP)—Governor Snell today commended Oregon citizens for their contribution toward winning the war.

He said: "Groups of civilian volunteers in all lines of home front activity—food production and conservation, nursing assistance, salvage collection, bond drives, blood donors, all phases of civilian defense, guard and patrol and many others—have given much of their time and effort and at great sacrifice. They are entitled to our utmost praise and commendation. On behalf of the people of the state of Oregon, I extend to them our grateful thanks and appreciation."

Glendale

GLENDALE—Mr. and Mrs. Jess Bowman and daughter, Mary Ann, were in Roseburg this weekend. Mr. Bowman had his broken ankle attended to and later visited the home of Mrs. Bowman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cornell. Mr. and Mrs. Bowman returned home Sunday evening. Mary Ann stayed to visit longer with her grandparents and will work in the bean fields.
