THIMBLE CLUB IS ENTERTAINED AT NEAL HOME MONDAY.
Mrs. Alfred Neal very graciously entertained the Neighbors of Woodcraft Thimble club at her home Monday at a delicious potluck luncheon. The table was centered with a large birthday cake flanked by beautiful arrangements of fuschias and presented by the hostess to members having birthdays in August. Mrs. Miller, mother of the hostess, was guest of honor in celebration of her 86th birthday. Other guests of honor were: Mrs. Hooper, Mrs. Erskine, Mrs. B. W. Taylor and Mrs. Cynthia Germond.
A short business meeting followed the dinner. Those present were: Mrs. Walter P. Fredrickson, Mrs. Bertha Worthington, Mrs. Moran, Mrs. Lydia Hooper, Mrs. Hattie Perrin, Mrs. Harry Lohr, Mrs. A. D. Hawn, Mrs. Lois Bruton, Mrs. Cynthia Germond, Mrs. B. W. Taylor, Mrs. P. E. Beaver, Mrs. Cora Dourte and Mrs. Neal, hostess.
The next meeting will be September 10 at the home of Mrs. Walter P. Fredrickson at 820 Houck street.

BIRTHDAY AND ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED AT DELIGHTFUL PARTIES.
William Robert Haskin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Haskin, celebrated his seventh birthday at a delightful party at three o'clock the afternoon of August 2 at his home and that evening his parents celebrated their eighth wedding anniversary at a charming at-home affair.
Mrs. Haskin was assisted during the afternoon by Mrs. Galen Morey and Mrs. Sherman Morris. Games were played on the lawn and the lovely party refreshments were served at a long picnic table decorated with colorful summer flowers, attractive favors and individual birthday cakes bearing the name of each guest and covered by a tiny lighted candle. Gifts were presented to William Robert from: Mrs. Galen Morey and son, Michael Lee, of Marysville, Calif.; Mrs. Patrick Chapman and sons, Donald and Charles, of Eugene; Mrs. Robert Gile and daughter, Nancy Marie;

Corporal Geraldine Marie Morgan, daughter of Mrs. Eula Harris, and niece of Mrs. Mary L. Chapman and C. F. Northcraft of Roseburg, became the bride of Private Paul E. Fulton at the Columbia Heights Christian church, Washington, D. C., July 29.
Soft organ strains of "Oh Promise Me"; the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's recessional, with mellow candlelight formed the background for the impressive double ring ceremony. Both the bride and bridegroom were attired in the full dress uniform of the United States Marine corps.
M. T. Sgt. Howard L. Linsay, of Oklahoma City, Okla., served as best man and Pfc. Cecile Jones, of Bay City, Mich., was maid of honor. The wedding was attended by close friends of the bride and groom and was followed by a reception, at which time a beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut and dainty refreshments were served.
The bride attended Roseburg schools and was graduated from Balboa High in San Francisco, later attending Northwest Christian college in Eugene. She enlisted in the Marine Corps Women's Reserve and was called to active duty, January 7, 1944. Since July 1944, she has been discharging the duties of an aviation machinist mate at the Quantico, Va. The bridegroom, a native of Columbus, Ohio, is also stationed at Quantico in the capacity of an aircraft inspector. The couple spent their honeymoon at the nation's capitol, before returning to their base at Quantico.

MRS. R. R. BRAND ENTERTAINS AT CHARMING PARTY FOR MRS. RAMSDELL.
Mrs. R. R. Brand entertained at a charming one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon and farewell party honoring Mrs. Delmar Ramsdell, who is moving to Salem, Thursday at her beautiful home in West Moreland. Members of the Inter-Se Study club were invited as guests. Mrs. Brand was assisted by Mrs. E. S. Hall.
Georgous summer flowers were used in the decorations. Covers were placed for: Mrs. Ramsdell, Mrs. Earl Ulrich, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. E. S. Hall, Mrs. J. E. Young, Mrs. Charles Doerner, Mrs. R. B. Hampton, Mrs. George Churchill, Mrs. Paul Geddes and the hostess, Mrs. Brand.
A lovely gift was presented by the club to Mrs. Ramsdell. The pleasant afternoon hours were spent in visiting.

MISS HELEN CASEY ENTERTAINS AT CHARMING BRIDGE-LUNCHEON SATURDAY

Miss Helen Casey entertained at one of the most charming parties of the week, when she invited a group of friends to a very lovely one o'clock luncheon at her beautiful home on Blakeley street in compliment to her houseguest, Mrs. Raymond L. Bell, of Washington, D. C., who with her daughter, Judy, have been spending two weeks here.
Georgous bouquets of gladioli and zinnias were attractively arranged about the rooms, while the large serving table, covered by a lovely lace cloth, was centered with a low bowl of floating pink gladioli blossoms. Covers were placed for: Mrs. Raymond L. Bell, guest of honor; Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Jack Josse, of Hollywood, Calif.; Miss Daphne Hughes, of Newark, New Jersey; Miss Marion Tate, of South Hadley, Mass.; Mrs. John H. Robinson, Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mrs. Maynard W. Bell, Mrs. E. A. Pearson, Mrs. Paul Jenkins, Mrs. C. M. McDermott, Mrs. D. W. Helliwell, Mrs. Charles Kash, Mrs. Worth Davis, Miss Naomi Scott and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.
Contract bridge was the diversion of the pleasant-afternoon hours with Mrs. Raymond Bell receiving the guest prize; Mrs. Maynard W. Bell receiving the high score prize and Mrs. Harris Ellsworth receiving the second high score prize.
Mrs. Bell and Judy left Sunday for Salem and Portland to visit relatives and friends, before continuing on to their home in Washington, D. C. Her husband and the husband of Mrs. Maynard W. Bell, who are brothers, are both serving with the U. S. forces as lieutenant colonels in the European theater of operations.

MARRIAGE TAKES PLACE IN EUGENE SATURDAY, JULY 21.
Miss Anna Evashenko, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Evashenko, of Velma, North Dakota, and W. L. Leonard, son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Washington Leonard, of Moulton, Iowa, were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Evashenko, in Eugene, at nine o'clock Saturday evening, July 21. Rev. Roy K. Reed, pastor of the Assembly of Good church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a few relatives.
Mrs. Nellie Evashenko, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and Philip Evashenko, brother of the bride, was best man. The bride's corsage was fashioned from gardenias and fern and the matron of honor wore a corsage of pink and white carnations with fern. Joy Evashenko, niece of the bride and daughter of the Philip Evashenko, wore a corsage of pastel-colored carnations and fern.
A reception followed and a beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut by the bride, after which Mr. and Mrs. Leonard left for their home on the Calapooia, near Roseburg, where they will reside. They plan to make a trip East as soon as traveling conditions improve.

MOTOR CORPS PARTY IS DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR AT BAILEY HOME FRIDAY.
Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bailey entertained the Motor Corps at a very delightful hamburger fry at seven o'clock in their attractive out-door living room on the river bank Friday evening. Covers were placed for: Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Catching, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, Miss Ila Laubach, Mr. Preston and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey.
Visiting and gin rummy were enjoyed during the pleasant evening hours.

CORVALLIS VISITORS HONORED DURING STAY.
Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Daugherty of Corvallis, who have been enjoying a 10-day stay in Roseburg visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bailey, on Spruce street, were complimented on their birthdays at a charming picnic affair Sunday in the beautiful out-door living room of the Bailey's on the river bank.
During the Daugherty's stay in Roseburg, they were guests at a dinner given by Mrs. Lee Miller and were also entertained by Mrs. Myrtle Bailey.

MISS BETTY JUNE SHIGLEY, attractive daughter of Mrs. Mary Shigley of Coos Junction, became the bride of Bernard A. Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Bailey of Garden Valley, at an impressive ceremony Saturday, July 28, at the First Presbyterian church. Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the nuptials at four o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of several hundred friends.
Proceeding the ceremony, Mrs. Gordon Stewart played softly on the pipe organ and accompanied H. D. Scott, who sang, "Always," and "When You Are Truly Mine." With the opening strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, the bridal party advanced to the altar. At the close of the ceremony, Mrs. Stewart played Mendelssohn's Wedding recessional.
The bride was very lovely in a floor length wedding gown of white satin fashioned with a full train and full-length wedding veil. The veil was held in place by a band of stephanotis. She carried a white Bible topped by a spray of orchids and gardenias with stephanotis blossoms tied to the white satin shower ribbons.

Miss Georleen Shigley, sister of the bride, was attractive in a floor-length formal gown of blue. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and rosebuds. John Cantleberry acted as best man to the bridegroom. The bride's mother wore an aqua ensemble with a corsage of gardenias and the bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue ensemble with gardenia corsage.
Following a wedding trip to eastern Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey returned to Sutherlin, where they will make their home. The bride attended school in Wisconsin and at Forrest Park, Ill. The bridegroom attended the Roseburg schools and is now with the Bailey-Cantleberry Logging company with headquarters at Sutherlin.

MRS. G. R. CHILD IS COMPLIMENTED AT LUNCHEON ON WEDNESDAY

In compliment to Mrs. G. R. Child, of San Francisco, a very charming one o'clock luncheon was given Wednesday by Mrs. V. J. Miceli at her beautiful home "Granview." The serving table, covered by an exquisite lace cloth, was especially lovely with G. dey china with matching figurines and a very artistic centerpiece of fuschias. Large bouquets of colorful summer zinnias were arranged about the rooms.
Covers were placed for: Mrs. Child, guest of honor; Mrs. A. J. Geddes, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Mrs. I. B. Riddle, Mrs. L. Kohlhaasen, Sr., Mrs. Marie Flint McCall, Miss Jeannie Bulek, Mrs. J. D. Osborn, Mrs. Annie L. Russell and the hostess, Mrs. Miceli. Mrs. Osborn assisted the hostess in serving.
Following the luncheon, a very interesting history quiz was held with Mrs. Wimberly winning the prize. Visiting was enjoyed during the remainder of the pleasant afternoon hours.

V. F. W. PICNIC IS DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR AT KIWANIS PARK

Patrick W. Kelly post and auxiliary to Veterans of Foreign Wars held its annual summer picnic at a delightful affair Sunday at Kiwanis park. More than fifty members and their families attended.

Picnic and other games were enjoyed and lovely prizes were awarded the winners. The prizes, donated by members and various merchants of Roseburg, were greatly enjoyed and the post and auxiliary have expressed their appreciation to the donors.
Following the social hour, a potluck picnic supper was enjoyed. Ice cream and coffee were furnished by the post.

BIRTHDAY PARTY GIVEN FOR DOROTHY CASEY ON FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

Mrs. C. M. McDermott very graciously entertained at a delightful party at her lovely home on East Cass street Friday afternoon to compliment her daughter, Dorothy Casey, on her thirteenth birthday.
Lovely gifts were presented to Dorothy from: Mary Lou Morrisette, Anne Trueblood, Carolyn Burr and Roberta and Norma Rae Johns.
Games and visiting were enjoyed and later Mrs. McDermott served a beautiful birthday cake and refreshments to the guests at a table covered by an attractive cloth and decorated in pastel-colored party favors.
