"The Aftermath of War" is the sermon topic Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Is it true that when we fight the enemy we start fighting each other? Can we expect great conflicts in the days ahead between capital and labor, the racial groups, Catholics and Protestants? Will there be cut-throat competition in business again? Will the customer come into his own again? Will we have freedom of speech on the air? Miss Mary Apra has returned from vacation and will sing Sunday evening. Dr. Ralph Walker of the White Temple, Portland, will lead the Wednesday evening meeting and assist in Youth week.

This service will be held at 8 P. M. and will include special music and a youth choir. Other services of the day begin with the church school at 9:45 A. M. which has a class for every age, managed by an efficiently trained staff of teachers. At 5 P. All youth of teenage and older are invited and urged to attend.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

Food rationing had its beginning when God told Moses to lead the children of Israel out of Egypt into the wilderness. It was told, "This is the bread which the Lord hath given you to eat." Each person was given an omer (7 1/2 pints) to be gathered every morning, and a two day supply on the day before the Sabbath, as no manna might be gathered on that day. God gave them freely; every one had enough, but there was no waste. Hoarders were punished by finding their extra supply full of worms. Sabbath breakers who went out found nothing. Though God rationed the manna in the wilderness to the children of Israel, He does not ration spiritual food to His children. More grace is needed day by day to meet new problems. He does not limit the gifts of the spirit. We do not need points for kindness, sympathy, love, faith, hope. God gives them freely without measure. The amount given is determined by our capacity to receive. As we grow more and more in the fulness of the Spirit, for "No good thing will He withhold from them that walk uprightly," God's promise is to supply all your needs, not by ration or measure. —Amen.
