Rod and Gun Club Names Heads, Plans Fish Bill Battle

John Amacher of Winchester was elected president of the Roseburg Rod and Gun club at a meeting held Thursday night at the Knights of Pallas hall, as plans were laid for revival of activities following a lapse during the war period.

The club laid plans for a vigorous membership campaign, revival of trap shooting, and a program of fish and wildlife conservation. Organization work, directed toward defeat of the referendum of H. B. 378, the coastal streams fishing bill passed by the legislature and referred to the people by petitions instituted by the fishing industry, will be undertaken.

Other officers elected include Burdette Leas, vice-president; Ivan Pickens, treasurer; Bruce Yeager, secretary; Mert Krell, Earl Duncan, Paul Caskey, James Bartley and Al Newman, directors. Holdover directors include Fred Kuck, Fred Lockwood, Steve Cooper, George West, Mel Ingram.

President Amacher announced that directors would be called into a meeting in the very near future to outline detailed plans for revival of club activities.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

"There is a destiny which makes us brothers. None goes his way alone." A young shipmate told the following story. When he was a child his family had been completely wiped out. The father had disappeared; the three children had been placed under different names in widely separated orphanages; the mother had moved to a distant city and remarried. A kindly couple had taken this lad from the orphanage and later adopted him. When he enlisted in the Navy, he did not know the name or the whereabouts of a single relative of his own. Then one day he learned that his brother, name unknown had also enlisted in the Navy. Greatly excited he said that out of the 2,000 men on his vessel, one of them might be his brother. With no clue, save one, he went through the ship, looking for someone who resembled himself. Finally he came to his captain. "I have found so many men like myself," he said, "that I believe every man is my brother." That young man made a great discovery. —Amen.
