S. Sgt. and Mrs. Chester Frew

S. Sgt. Chester Frew, son of Street Superintendent and Mrs.
George Frew of Roseburg, and Miss Edith Scarborough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Scarborough of Gulfport, Miss., were quietly married at Gulfport at ten-thirty o'clock the morning of August 14. Only the necessary witnesses attended the ceremony.
The bride wore an afternoon dress of black and her corsage was of rosebuds.
S. Sgt. and Mrs. Frew arrived in Roseburg this week to spend his 21-day furlough visiting his parents and also with his sister, Mrs.
Clifford E. Smith, and family.

The bridegroom is well-known in Roseburg, having attended the local schools and was graduated from Roseburg Senior High school in 1936. He entered the service March 8, 1942, and for the last nine months has been stationed at the Gulfport, Miss., Army air base, following 28 months service in Puerto Rico.
The bride received her education at Gulfport. Following the bridegroom's furlough, they will return to Gulfport to make their home and the bridegroom will report back for duty at the Army air base.

COUPLE MARRY AT BEAUTIFUL CANDLELIGHT WEDDING CEREMONY

A very beautiful home wedding took place the past week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Childers in Myrtle Creek, when one of their twin daughters, Ardie, was married to Allen Edward Hayes, of Staten Island, New York.

The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played by Teresa Mc-Mannus and the ceremony was performed by candlelight in front of the large fireplace banked with pink snapdragons. E. W.
Powell, pastor of the Christian church of Myrtle Creek, read the impressive service in the presence of relatives and close friends.

Leslie Childers, father of the bride, gave her in marriage. The bride was lovely in a light blue silk dress and her corsage was of gardenias.

A decorated wedding cake was cut and served at the reception.
Those present were: Mr. and Mrs.
E. V. Bounds, Mrs. V. Bounds, Jesse Bounds, Mrs. Margaret McMannus, Teresa McMannus, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Childers and baby; Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Powell, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Childers and Miss Ardeth Childers.

The bride and bridegroom will enjoy a short honeymoon, before the latter reports back to the Navy for further duty.

The Bell System—the largest source of Radar for our fighting forces

This is not surprising for Radar development and production stems from the same roots that produced and continue to nourish this country's telephone system.

Radar, the instrument which enabled our land, sea and air forces to spot enemy targets through darkness, smoke or fog, was one of the outstanding new fighting instruments of the war.

Two years before Pearl Harbor the Government asked Bell Telephone Laboratories to put its wide experience and knowledge of electronics to work to help perfect Radar as a military instrument.

From then on the Laboratories cooperated closely in the Radar program with the National Defense Research Committee, with Army and Navy specialists, and with scientists of Great Britain.

The Western Electric Company, manufacturing branch of the Bell System, became the Nation's largest supplier of Radar systems. One type it made was universally used by B-29's in the Pacific for navigation, target location and high altitude bombing. Another played an important part in aiming the guns on our warships.

If you're waiting for a home telephone, it helps a little to know that Radar is one of the reasons. For years telephone manufacturing plants were devoted to war needs.
