MINERAL CLUB HAS INTERESTING MEETING WEDNESDAY EVENING

The Umpqua Mineral Club held an interesting meeting Wednesday night, at the Woman's Clubhouse on South Jackson street.

Leslie Roberts, club president, discussed at length a project for promoting interest in mineralogy and lapidary work among the science students of the Roseburg Schools. He suggested that the club sponsor a class in lapidary work to be held at his shop on South Pine street. Mr. Roberts has already suggested this project to City School Superintendent Elliot and is now awaiting his decision. He would like also to promote a lapidary class for other individuals who are interested in cutting and polishing mineral specimens. Cost of the course would be confined to running expenses only. Mr. Roberts has just finished installing a very complete unit of lapidary equipment in his work shop and is anxious to share these facilities with others who are interested in this kind of work. Jack Wharton and Everett Teater promised their enthusiastic support in the proposed project.

Dorothy Teater, entertainment chairman, presented an interesting quiz on rocks and minerals which she had written. Upon examining the results it was found that Marjorie Pettit had turned in the highest score and she was awarded the title of "Champion Rockhound of 1945" and presented with a statuette of a bound. In the Pobble Pup class, Mrs. Ella Hutchins won and became "Champion Pobble Pup of 1945". She received a statuette of a cunning puppy dog. Mr. Roberts was given a lovely piece of cut and polished Jasper as his prize. Jack Wharton was low scorer and as a consolation prize he also received a piece of polished Jasper. The prizes were furnished by Dorothy and Everett Teater.

Following a lively evening of fun and discussion, cake and ice cream were served in generous helpings at colorful table centered by a bowl of gorgeous fuchsia from the garden of Mrs. Leslie Roberts. Mr. and Mrs. Everett Teater, Mrs. Ella Hutchins, Mrs. Marjorie Pettit and Jack Wharton.

POET'S CORNER

Tale of Kerama
List to the tale of Kerama
Sung o'er the keel of a bark
Brave with six tender companions
Through days now bright now dark

Into the teeth of the dragon
Red in the rising sun
Boldly the seven venture
Small ships but second to none

Swiftly the bright blurs of Vulcan
Flock to Kerama's shore
Dabbling about them expectant
Watching the enemy door

Gently they light at even
Off in the dawn with a roar
Eagles stiff-pinioned, fast breathing
Filling the heavens with war

Look, clash the white and the yellow
Deadlocked to live or to die
Turning to red the Pacific
Stained with the blue of the sky

Fierce with his wild Kamikaze
Self-killing bird of the East
Screaming Banzai in his fury
Death-dealing, blood-winged beast

Dreadful our weary watches
Bright in the bomber's moon
Haunting our breathless waiting
Blind havoc of pending typhoon

Soon may the tide of the waters
Rise and falling at will
Symbols of hope and of sorrow
Bid all this anguish be still.
