RHS Indians Face Champs of 1944 in Tilt Here Tonight

Roseburg High school's Indians will meet Lebanon High tonight in what promises to be the toughest game of the football season for the Redskins. Lebanon will be defending the district championship and has 15 members of last year's squad back this season, while Roseburg's team is largely inexperienced.

Lebanon will come to Roseburg fresh from a 6 to 0 win over Salem, showing in their win over Salem a very fast running attack, supported by deceptive passing.

Tonight's game will start at 8 o'clock on Finlay field, which has been turfed during the summer and is in excellent condition. The field will be in the best of shape for a fast, open-type style of play.

Indians Not in Top Form
Coach Mel Ingram reports the Indians handicapped by limited scrimmage practice. He would prefer to meet Lebanon later in the season, after the squad had gained experience in competition, but has been pointing the squad for tonight's battle in the hope of upsetting the done bucket.

The officials will be Faubion, referee; Laws, umpire. Flack, head linesman.

High school students sponsored an enthusiastic pep rally Thursday night on Jackson street between Cass and Oak streets, mixing school yells, songs and band selections with pep talks from sports fans, school officials, team members and others. A part of the one-hour program was broadcast from Station KHRN.
