Exchange Vows in Candlelight Service

Mrs. Rob Wesley Sherlock

Large baskets of white, pink and deep cream colored gladioli flanked by candelabra holding tall white cathedral candles decorated the altar for one of the loveliest weddings of the fall season, when Miss Helen Jane Kerr, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Kerr, of Roseburg, became the bride of Lt. Rob Wesley Sherlock, U. S. Army, San Francisco, son of Mrs. Herbert Stanton and O. J. Sherlock, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Saturday afternoon, September 22, at the First Presbyterian church in Roseburg. Dr. Morris H. Roach, pastor of the church, performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple. The church decorations were arranged by The Fern florists.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Lynn Beckley played softly on the pipe organ. The altar candles were lighted by Philip Beckley, of Elkton.

Mrs. Beckley played The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bride party to advance to the altar.

The bride was very beautiful in a traditional white slipper satin wedding gown, fashioned on Princess lines with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves coming to a point over the wrist, and a full train. Her finger-tip wedding veil of real lace was a family heirloom and was held in place with sprays of stephanotis. She wore a single strand of pearls and carried a white Bible topped by a large white orchid with a deep purple throat. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Carol Kerr, student at University of Oregon and the only sister of the bride was maid of honor and was very charming in a floor-length gown of daffodil yellow chiffon. She wore a matching headband in her hair and carried a shower bouquet of deep pink roses encircled with orchid and white asters.

Miss Marjorie Ott and Miss Betty McNeerney, bridesmaids, wore attractive pink colored formal gowns with matching headbands and carried identical bouquets of white and pink asters.

Captain Edward L. Jones, of San Francisco, acted as best man and Lynn Beckley, Roseburg, and Philip Beckley, of Elkton, were ushers.

Mrs. Kerr, mother of the bride, was charming in a grey-biege pin-stripe suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias, outlined with pink roses.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY IS GIVEN JUDGE HARTFIEL BY FRIENDS ON SUNDAY

Judge Thomas Hartfiel was very pleasantly surprised on his birthday Sunday when a group of friends called at his home on the North Umpqua at Winchester to celebrate the occasion.

Boniting was enjoyed during the afternoon and at six-thirty o'clock a fried chicken and rabbit dinner was served buffet style. Large bouquets of firethorn and colorful autumn flowers decorated the large living room and fireplace mantle. Following the dinner, a beautifully decorated birthday cake, lighted by tiny candles, was cut and served. On behalf of the group, J. P. Motschenbacher, presented a large hassoock to the guest of honor.

Those enjoying the occasion with Judge Hartfiel included his mother, Mrs. C. G. Ferrier, and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher. Mr. and Mrs. Forest Lowe, Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Lehnbach, Mr. and Mrs. James Powers, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Kenny, Mr. and Mrs. John Hess, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Van Voorst, Mrs. Morris Walsh, of Halsey, Idaho, and Mrs. Hayman.

Cards and other games were enjoyed during the pleasant evening hours.

ELEANOR MERRILL AND SGT. CORBETT ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT AT PARTY

Tiny cards with the names of the engaged couple, attached to satin streamers tied to gardenia corsages, were the medium of announcing the engagement of Miss Eleanor Merrill and Staff Sergeant Thomas Corbett, of Tiller, Ore., now stationed at Fort Benning, Ga. Friday evening at a dinner party given by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Hugh T. Harrison, of Longridge Road, Oakland Calif. The affair was held at the Athens Athletic club.

Miss Merrill was graduated from Piedmont High school and later attended University of Oregon, where she was pledged to Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Sergeant Corbett son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Corbett, of Tiller, Ore., formerly of Lafayette, California, was a student at University of Oregon before entering the U. S. Army. He is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Mendelssohn's Wedding recessional was played at the close of the ceremony.

A reception followed at the beautiful home of the bride's parents and was attended by members of the bridal party and relatives. The spacious rooms of the home were very lovely with artistic arrangements of cut flowers. Decorations were in charge of Mrs. E. C. Davis and Mrs. Robert Martin, both of Portland, who also assisted in serving.

The large tiered and decorated wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom.

For traveling the bride chose a beige colored suit with black accessories with an orchid corsage. Following a honeymoon by automobile to points north, they will go to San Francisco to make their home.

The bride, who is one of the loveliest members of the younger set here, attended the Roseburg schools and was graduated from University of Oregon in 1943. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. The bridegroom attended University of Pennsylvania and is a member of Kappa Alpha Gamma fraternity. He is now stationed in the Chemical Warfare service branch of the U. S. Army with headquarters in San Francisco.
