Stearns-Dillard, Co-Chairmen of Country Club Guest-Day Affair

Mrs. H. C. Stearns, retiring captain and Mrs. J. F. Dillard, incoming captain of the ladies of the Roseburg Country club, were co-chairmen of the charming fall-guest day bridge tea sponsored by the club at the clubhouse Thursday afternoon, which was enjoyed by a large number of members and their guests.

This was the first large party to be sponsored by the club in several years, as all annual club affairs were cancelled during the war.

Large bouquets of gladioli, michaelmas daisies, asters, zinnias and marigolds were artistically arranged about the spacious club room, while the lace-covered tea table was beautifully decorated in harmonizing colors. Miss Rosa B. Parrott and Mrs. J. A. Harding, and Mrs. H. C. Stearns and Mrs. J. F. Dillard alternated in pouring.

Miss Helen Casey announced the card play, Mrs. Clair K. Allen won the high score for the guests with Mrs. L. L. Wimberly winning the second high score.

Mrs. O. M. Berrie won high score for the members and Mrs. Mitchell Moore received the second high score prize. The door prize was won by Mrs. S. G. Palmer. Twenty-four tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon with a number of ladies joining the group at the tea hour. Prizes for the card play were awarded by Mrs. Fred Lockwood.

Mrs. H. C. Stearns, retiring captain, who has enjoyed a very successful year as head of the club, welcomed the group and introduced the incoming officers including: Mrs. J. F. NEW BETHEL IS INSTITUTED AT SPRINGFIELD, ORE.

Of interest to members and friends of Job's Daughters is the fact that a new Bethel was instituted at Springfield, Oregon, on the evening of September 29. The institution proceedings and installation of the Bethel guardian council were presided over by Mrs. E. A. Britton, grand guardian of Oregon, who is a former resident of Roseburg. Mrs. A. J. Young, of Roseburg, a past grand guardian of Oregon, was installing chaplain, and other members of the grand council assisted Mrs. Britton. The ritualistic work was exemplified for the members of the new Bethel by the officers of Bethel No. 26 of Eugene. The beautiful and impressive degrees of the order were conferred on about 30 girls.

The installation of officers was performed by Bethel No. 8 of Roseburg, Mrs. Earl Plummer, guardian of the Roseburg Bethel, opened the installation proceedings and invited the grand guardian, Mrs. Britton, who is a past guardian of Roseburg Bethel, to introduce Miss Aileen Slattery, honored guest of Roseburg Bethel, as installing officer of the evening. Miss Slattery was assisted by Miss Marjorie Ott, installing guide; Miss Alice Harvie, installing marshal; Miss Ann Carter, installing chaplain; Mrs. Betty Owen Shoun, installing secretary; Miss Georgene Shanklin, installing musician, and Miss Marilyn Har, char. soloist. Many gifts of money and paraphernalia were presented to the new Bethel and many good wishes expressed by those present.

At the close of the evening, delicious refreshments were served by the guardian council of the Springfield Bethel.

Cascade Chapter, O.E.S., of Springfield, sponsored the new Bethel.
