The first fall meeting of the Junior Woman's club was presided over by the new president, Miss Meta-Marie Amiot, at a business session at the clubhouse Monday evening.

It was announced that District No. 2 of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs would meet in Roseburg November 2. Mrs. Eugene Powell was appointed as Junior Woman's club delegate to the convention.

Mrs. J. E. Henbest was appointed acting vice-president in the absence of Mrs. Robert Harris.

C. Fitzgerald and Miss Marjorie Ott, the rush party will be the first social event of the club year and all women in Roseburg between the ages of 18 and 30 are most cordially invited to attend the party. New teachers and newcomers to Roseburg are especially invited to attend and get acquainted.

The club voted to hold a social hour and have refreshments following every business session during the year. The entire year's program was outlined and approved by the membership.

Those present were: Miss Meta-Marie Amiot, Mrs. Bruce Carter, Mrs. T. C. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Sidney Democro, Mrs. J. C. Giovannianni, Mrs. Charles Hart, Mrs. J. E. Henbest, Mrs. Donald Johnson, Mrs. Donald Metzger, Mrs. Cecil Thompson, Mrs. Sidney Moon, Jr., Miss Marjorie Ott, Mrs. Eugene Powell, Miss Annaloris Ward, Miss Thelma Young, Miss Joanne Hume, Mrs. George Eckart, Mrs. Yvonne Brown, Mrs. Carl Wasson and Miss Betty Strong.

MARGARET JULIA HARVEY BECOMES BRIDE OF WILLIAM J. OLEN CARR

Miss Margaret Julia Harvey, attractive daughter of Mrs. Loren D. Harvey, of Riverside, Roseburg, became the bride of William J. Olen Carr, U. S. Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allie Carr, of Blountville, Alabama, at the First Methodist church in Roseburg, September 29. Rev. Walter A. MacArthur performed the impressive ring ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

Tall candelabra, holding white cathedral candles, centered the altar and were flanked by huge baskets of gladioli and Artemesia with small end baskets of pastel blossoms of match the banked altar. A white satin prayer pillow, outlined with roses and Artemesia centered the arrangement. Mrs. Earl Wiley had charge of the decorations.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Paul Geddes played softly on the pipe organ and accompanied Mrs. J. Ellison, who sang, "I Love You Truly," after which Mrs. Ellison sang, "Because."

With the opening strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, the bride party advanced down the center aisle, which was marked with tall candlesticks, holding low white candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Edwin Harvey, was very lovely in a white satin gown fashioned with a chiffon overskirt and train. The sleeves were wrist length and the fitted bodice was of Princess design. She wore a three-quarter length wedding veil. Her bouquet was a cascade of white gladioli with pink Talisman roses in the center and outlined with stephanotis and maiden-hair fern.

Mrs. Leon Durham, matron of honor, was charming in a floor-length gown of aqua blue. She carried a nosegay fashioned with gladioli and rosebuds. Miss Dolly Henry and Miss Ruth Rust, bridesmaids, wore pink formal gowns and carried nosegays of rosebuds, gladioli, snapdragons and baby's breath.

Lawrence Rand, uncle of the bride, was best man. The aisle and altar candles were lighted by Miss Jean Wiley and Miss Roberta Mabley. Miss Wiley wore a white floor-length gown and a corsage of pink roses and snapdragons and Miss Mabley wore a yellow gown and a corsage to match that worn by Miss Wiley.

The bride's mother wore an attractive street-length dress of purple and orchid shades fashioned with a braided yoke beaded with pearls. Her corsage was of gardenias and stephanotis.

Robert Smith and Irvin Stephens acted as ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence K. Rand, in Laurelwood. The bride's cake, topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom, was baked by Mrs. Roscoe Marsters. Mrs. Homer Rand, of Grants Pass, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Roscoe Marsters served the wedding cake. Pastel fall flowers carried out a very pretty motif for the reception decorations.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Carr left for Birmingham, Alabama, where the bridegroom is stationed since being returned from 18 months service overseas with the 91st division.

Rev. Walter MacArthur Gives Inspiring Talk to Woman's Club

Mrs. Homer Grow, music chairman, led the members and guests in group singing.

Mrs. I. B. Riddle, program chairman, introduced Rev. Walter MacArthur, pastor of the Methodist church of Roseburg, who gave a very inspiring talk on the subject of "Bringing Religion out of the Sidewalks of Life." As Rev.
