MUSIC TEACHERS ASSOCIATION MEETS AT GROW HOME MONDAY

The Douglas County Music Teachers association met at the home of Mrs. Homer Grow Monday evening. A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Miss Gladys Strong. The club is planning to study South American music this winter and Miss Strong outlined the course and assigned topics to several members for the next meeting. Mrs. Charles Brand read some excerpts from an article on Brazilian music by Mme. Olga Coelho, distinguished Brazilian soprano and guitarist.

Mrs. Vivian Gilkey, one of the new High school teachers, played very beautifully two violin numbers. Mrs. Paul Geddes accompanied her.

Later in the evening Mrs. Grow served refreshments to Miss Strong, Mrs. Guy Peeler, Mrs. Morris Roach, Mrs. H. R. Nerbas, Mrs. Frank Burr, Miss Naomi Scott, Mrs. Paul Geddes and Mrs. Brand, members, and to Mrs. Vivian Gilkey and Mrs. Tom McNeil, guests.

American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By MRS. CLAUDE BAKER
Tuesday, October 16, at the I.O.O.F. hall the American Legion and its Auxiliary will have as their special guests District Commander E. W. Bryant and District 4 President Marie E. Wilcox at their meetings at 8 P. M. All members of both organizations are urged to be present.

The annual Past Presidents and Commanders banquet will be held in the near future. This event is in charge of Junior Past President Vera McClintock and Eugene Springer of the Legion.

This week and running through October 20 the American Legion Auxiliary is canvassing the residential district for the Roseburg Community Chest. Mrs. Clyde Carstens, Auxiliary Community Service chairman, has been appointed head of this residential drive by Chest Chairman Ray Reubel.

Last Sunday night at 8 P. M. over KRNR the American Legion Auxiliary presented the "Kick Off" program for the Community Chest drive. Because of the illness of United Radio Chairman Vera Jones the program was presented by Mrs. Claude Baker and Mrs. Clyde Carstens, one of the Chest chairmen. In this connection it is interesting to note the statement by Chest President Maurice Newland, "Any contribution to this Community Chest fund," he stated, "can definitely be deducted from income taxes since it is a non-profit organization." Thirty-two organizations are represented in this drive with eight state groups caring for children's needs and six strictly local agencies participating. The local Boy Scout, Camp Fire Girls, Christmas Cheer Committee, Salvation Army, Cancer Control Fund and the Recreational Program survive only by public subscription. Roseburg is one of the few cities in Oregon having an organized Recreational Program. Its value has been proved along with that of other youth programs. "Generous response," said Chairman Reubel, "is necessary to make this plan successful. The American Legion Auxiliary is urging that all residents assist the collectors by making a second call unnecessary.

The American Legion Auxiliary has, since its inception over 25 years ago, been interested in children and their welfare. At the regular meeting of the Auxiliary and Legion October 2, the combined groups listened to Miss Patricia Mayo, Child Welfare worker at the Douglas County Public Welfare office. She explained the various children's programs of foster homes. Because of the fact that public funds are spent first for the board and room, medical care, clothing and school requirements many children do not have the reaction supplies which are so necessary to the well developed child. Therefore, the Auxiliary voted to purchase toys or gymnasium equipment such as boxing gloves or musical instruments or other supplies they would like to donate to this "pool" may call the Auxiliary Child Welfare Chairman, Mrs. Martha Merchants or Mrs. Myrtel Wenger, president.

The next radio program will be presented Sunday evening, October 21, at 8 P. M. over KRNR.

Do not forget the meeting Tuesday, October 16, and greet our district president and command. A joint meeting will be held with a program and refreshments, after the regular meetings.

City Officials Visit—North B. Hoyer, mayor of North Bend, and Fred Kruse, councilman, visited at the Roseburg Chamber of Commerce Tuesday. They were on route home following a trip into the Willamette valley.
