Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Brumbach

One of the loveliest weddings of the fall season was that of Miss Evelyn Genevieve Donaldson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Donaldson, of Grants Pass, who became the bride of Donald James Brumbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brumbach, of Grants Pass, on Oct. 19, at eight o'clock at the First Baptist church in Grants Pass. Rev. Thomas L. Kilpatrick, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

Large baskets of pink, yellow and white dahlias flanked by candelabra holding tall white candles decorated the altar in front of which was an improvised arch made entirely of large white dahlias with a central background of domestic cedar intertwined with yellow chrysanthemums.

Preceding the ceremony soft piano music was played. The candles were lighted and Miss Dorothy Dietrich sang, "Because," accompanied on the pipe organ by Mrs. Harold Martin, older sister of the bride, followed by Mrs. Martin playing the traditional wedding march for the bridal party to advance to the altar.

The bride was beautiful in a white silk crepe wedding gown. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by sprays of stephanotis and she carried a white Bible topped by a large purple orchid.

MERRILL CORBETT WEDDING TAKES PLACE IN CALIFORNIA AT CHAPEL OF THE CHIMES

From Fort Benning, Ga., last weekend on furlough came Pfc. Thomas Corbett, formerly of Lafayette, Calif., to claim Miss Eleanor Merrill as his bride. Last-minute plans were hurriedly completed and the young couple exchanged wedding vows last week in the Chapel of the Chimes with Dr. Davis of the First Presbyterian church officiating.

The bride wore a gown of egg-shell colored French silk and net, borrowed from her cousin, Mrs. F. C. Lawson (Janet Quinney), styled with short cap sleeves and a low, round neckline. Her only piece of jewelry was a small four-leaf clover medallion she wore about her neck, a gift from the bridegroom's mother. A heart-shaped net headpiece held her fingertip length veil and her bouquet was of white cyclamen and orchids.

A trio of attendants preceded the bride to the altar at the formal ceremony. Shirley Price served as maid of honor while Eileen McDonough and Nancy Forman were bridesmaids. The three girls wore dresses of Beauty red taffeta made with a square-cut neckline and a bouffant skirt accented with a tiny bustle. In their hair, they wore a wisp of veiling that matched their dresses. Bouvardia and white carnations formed their bral bouquets.

Standing with the bridegroom as best man was his father, H. S. Corbett, of Tillier, Ore., and the ushers included L. A. Eccles, Caine, Harold Nielsen, Elman Nielsen and J. Ruthledge.

Shortly after a reception held in their honor at the Claremont Country club, the young couple left for a week's honeymoon at Santa Cruz, Calif.

Greeting the guests at the reception were Mrs. Hugh T. Harrison, mother of the bride, in a gown of aqua crepe, and Mrs. H. S. Corbett, of Tillier, Ore., mother of the bridegroom, wore a gown of black lace. Both mothers wore corsages of orchids.

Until her marriage, the bride resided with her parents at their Longridge road address. She was graduated from Piedmont High school and attended University of Oregon and is affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega. She has one brother, Warren Merrill, of the U. S. Navy, now in Virginia.

Pfc. Thomas Corbett was graduated from Mt. Diablo High school and prior to entering the service, he attended University of Oregon. He is affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity.

The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Corbett, of Tillier, turned to their home at Tillier, following a trip to California to attend the wedding and to spend some time at Carmel, Calif., visiting their daughter-in-law, Mrs. H. S. Corbett, Jr., and their grandson, James Ryan Corbett.

IT'S ALWAYS DARKEST BEFORE THE DAWN
A situation has never been darker. Laundry service is unsatisfactory simply because there's a shortage of workers. It won't improve unless and until help is again available. But we'll still do everything humanly possible to serve you promptly and efficiently, and we'll still continue to look everywhere for additional workers. Help us by continuing to be patient and good humored, won't you?
