Elk Hunters Flocking
Into Eastern Oregon

CANYON CITY, Ore., Nov. 5. —(AP)—The elk season opens in Grant county this week, and hunters are flocking in from all parts of the state.

Game wardens announced that the deer season closed October 28 with no arrests for serious infractions of the law. About twice as many deer hunters took to the woods as last year, but number of animals killed was about the same as in 1945. One man was killed accidentally in this area.

Sutherlin
SUTHERLIN—Mrs. Harry Barker is teaching in high school, filling the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Elsie Irving, who was forced to leave because of the illness of her son.

Vern Holgate was confined to his home by illness the forepart of the week.

Eddie Hall of the Seabees, who has been in the South Pacific for some time, arrived in Sutherlin last week to visit with his mother, Mrs. Alma Anderson.
