COUNCIL HOLDS ALL-DAY MEETING

The Ladies Council of the Christian church met at the home of Mrs. Rupert Lee, Friday, Nov. 16. After devotion centering upon prayer, the routine business matters were disposed of. The flower mission was presented for discussion.

The noon hour was spent visiting during the paper bag lunch. The regular missionary service was called to order at 1:30. The president reversed the order of business by turning the meeting over to Jeanette Boucock for devotion and a Thanksgiving program. The theme, "Our Angelus With God," was emphasized by the beautiful story of "The Angelus," and a solo, "Great Is Thy Faithfulness," by Jessie Waggoner. The Rev. Kenneth C. Knox contributed a very inspirational application of the 100th Psalm. The service was concluded with the silver offering for missions. The reports for the year disclosed that some $770 had been sent to mission fields.

The meeting was called to the regular course of business by the president, Mrs. Bertha Emmons. The memorial books at the City Library are now placed on the shelf for public reading. These titles are Wendell Willkie's "One World"; Hill's, "The Time of the Singing of Birds"; "The Faith and the Fire Within Us," and "Papa Was a Preacher."

The Scrap Book was taken over by Mrs. Paul Blaskey, who asks the support of everyone in turning in articles and clippings, particularly on Africa.

Mrs. Beckley donated a new book, "Girl Without a Country," to the Missionary Library and Alice Mahn contributed the loan of her book, "Brothers Under the Skin."

It was decided to adopt the World Wide Bible Reading Service, entitled, "Read What Everybody Else is Reading," as planned by the American Bible Society.

A committee was named to prepare a "Christmas Observance" for the County hospital. Those enjoying the day were: Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Knox, Miss Alice Mahn, Mesdames Rose, Emmons, Plumer, Abel, Pfaff, Aekert, Boucock, Lee, Blaskey, Munson, Schuett, Town, Waggoner and Church.

How to cook steaks, chops and roasts

Certain basic rules should be followed in the cooking of steaks, chops and roasts to arrive at full flavor and tenderness. The broiling and roasting times listed below will be a quick and easy reference pasted in your scrap book of recipes.

BROILING—DIRECT HEAT

Steaks and chops should be 1-inch thick or thicker for broiling. Place meat 2 to 3 inches from heat. Brown one side of meat, then turn by inserting fork into fat, and brown the other side. About half of broiling time is required for each side, reducing heat to complete cooking after turning and browning. Season meat after browning or just before serving.

BROILING STEAKS AND CHOPS

Steak 1 1/2 inches thick:
15 minutes—rare
20 minutes—medium
25 minutes—well-done
Lamb chops 1 inch thick:
12-20 minutes
Lamb chops 2 inches thick:
20-30 minutes

Pan-Broiling

Slightly grease heavy frying pan and heat to sizzling-hot. Brown meat well, about 1 minute, on both sides then reduce temperature. Turn meat at intervals and continue cooking until done. Pour off fat, as it accumulates. Do not cover pan. Do not add water.

ROASTING TIMES AND TEMPERATURES

300° F. to 350° F. constant temperature. (Increase roasting time approximately 10 minutes per pound for rolled or boned roasts.)

Beef:
22 to 25 minutes per lb.—rare
28 minutes per lb.—medium
30 to 32 minutes per lb.—well-done
Lamb:
30 to 35 minutes per lb.—medium
35 to 40 minutes per lb.—well-done
Pork:
40 to 45 minutes per lb.—well-done
Veal:
40 to 45 minutes per lb.—well-done
