Without Painful Backache. Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it causes rheumatism, rheumatoid, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Prompt relief comes with the use of Creomulsion, with its powerful purifying action. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, and successfully by millions for over 40 years. It's a kidney relief and will help you in all of kidney troubles and prevent further trouble to your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

DAILY DEVOTIONAL DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

In "laying aside every weight." St. Paul is calling to the reader's attention the Greek games of the period. He draws the parallel between life and the games. There is the great amphitheater filled with witnesses. The runner, who appears to take their places, must first throw off their outer garments always worn by Greek athletes before a race. That weight must be laid aside. Then the contest starts and the young men speed toward the mark with patience for steadfastness and assurance and he who endures with the greatest assurance wins the race. In this simple and direct manner Paul pictures the race of the human soul through life. The first thing we must do is to "lay aside every weight," for it is not an outer garment but an inner impediment, a weakness which doth so easily beset us. No other man can remove that weight. It is the runner's task. Then comes the race. It is a long journey over difficult terrain, "but who runs with the assurance that Christ is 'the mark' can overcome all things.—Amen."
