An all-white arrangement of chrysanthemums and tall lighted cathedral candles formed the attractive setting for the largest wedding of the season, when Miss Marjorie Ott, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ott, of Roseburg, became the bride of Gustav Frederick Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Weber, Sr., of Wayzata, Minnesota, Monday afternoon November 19, at St. George's Episcopal church. Father William Blaker performed the impressive ceremony at four o'clock in the presence of 250 guests. Decorations for the wedding were arranged by The Fern florists.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the beautiful home of the bride's parents on the North Umpqua. The serving table, covered by an attractive lace cloth, was centered with a bowl of white chrysanthemums flanked by six tall lighted white tapers. The four tiered-decorated wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom and served by Mrs. A. F. Rapp, of Eugene, house mother at the bride's sorority house. Mrs. A. B. Taylor served the punch. Assisting in serving and about the rooms were: Mrs. Charles E. Hart, Mrs. Dayton Brown, Mrs. Sidney Moon, Jr., Mrs. Charles Hary and Mrs. Eugene Powell. The guest book was in charge of Mrs. T. C. Fitzgerald.

The bride's wedding bouquet was caught by Mrs. Jane Bissell. For traveling the bride chose a dressmaker suit of gray-blue wool with a matching top coat. Her accessories were brown and her corsage was of deep-red rosebuds. The couple left for Eugene, where they then turned west to the coast and going south as far as Crescent City, Calif., and back via the Redwood highway. They spent several days in Roseburg this week making preparations for moving to their new home at Wayzata, Minn., and took the train yesterday from Portland for the east.

The bride, a very attractive member of the younger set of Roseburg, was graduated from Roseburg Senior High school. She attended Oregon State college and later transferred to University of Oregon, where she was graduated in 1944. She is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority and is a past president of the sorority. The bridegroom attended high school in Briggsmoot and prior to the war was a student at University of Oregon. After entering the Army four and a half years ago he was for a time a member of the staff at the filter center in Roseburg. For the last 20 months, he served in the Italian, French and German campaigns and was recently returned to the States and given an honorable discharge from service.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Weber, of Wayzata, Minn., parents of the bridegroom; Mrs. A. F. Rapp and Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Rush, of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mitchell of Waldport, Ore.

Mrs. Lucia Ingels, Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. Pearl Shugart, members, Mrs. Virginia Buckley, of Salt Lake City, a guest, and the hostess, Mrs. Bailey.

Out of the 151 children at the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis, 64 are children of World War I and World War II fathers, according to a report sent from the Home to the club. Members of the Social club have completed three quilts to be sent to the Home as gifts.

The next meeting of the club will be announced later.

MR. AND MRS. WHARTON ENTERTAIN MINERAL CLUB TUESDAY EVENING

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wharton entertained the members of the Umpqua Mineral club at their delightful home on East Douglas street Tuesday evening. No formal program was provided, but the evening was given over to reports of field trips. Mrs. Anna Knudtson told of a trip she had made to Devil's Knob during the summer, and displayed some excellent specimens of petrified wood. Roy Rose spoke of an expedition to DeLake, on the coast, where he collected some fine fossils and teredo wood. Leslie Roberts reviewed a trip made by himself and Everett Teater to Harney and Malheur counties in Eastern Oregon where they visited the Burns manganese bed and collected many fine grades as well as some wonderful specimens of agate and petrified wood. They also attended a meeting of the Owyhee Gem and Mineral society at Caldwell, Ida.

As part of the evening's entertainment Mr. Wharton provided a tray of cut and uncut rock specimens and fossils. Members were given first choice from the collection. Mrs. Anna Knudtson, Mrs. Hilda Peterson and Clair Pettit came up with sixes and got their pick of the tray. A box of rock specimens was auctioned off and went to high-bidder Clair Pettit. Proceeds from the sale go to the public book fund.

Late in the evening Mrs. Wharton, assisted by Mrs. Leslie Roberts and Mrs. Ella Hutchins, served delicious refreshments from a beautifully appointed table centered by a bowl of colorful chrysanthemums.

Those enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Wharton were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Knudtson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Pettit, Mrs. Hilda Peterson, Mrs. Ella Hutchins, and Mrs. Essie Koentz.

Over the weekend the men enjoyed duck hunting on the South Umpqua.

IT'S ALWAYS DARKEST BEFORE THE DAWN

WE HOPE that saying is true, for the laundry situation has never been darker. Laundry service is unsatisfactory simply because there's a shortage of workers. It won't improve unless and until help is again available. But we'll still do everything humanly possible to serve you promptly and efficiently, and we'll still continue to look everywhere for additional workers. Help us by continuing to be patient and good humored, won't you?
