Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Updegrave

Mary Lou Keenel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orval A. Keenel, 1376 Umpqua avenue, became the bride of Aaron James Updegrave, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Updegrave, Glade, at a candle-light ceremony 8 o'clock Sunday evening, November 18, in the Seventh-Day-Adventist church in Roseburg. Rev. N. C. Erntson officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Winters, Medford, sang two numbers, and Miss Gladys Robinson of Roseburg played the wedding music.

The couple were married before an attractive background of ferns and various colored chrysanthemums. Several baskets of large white colored chrysanthemums were placed on the rostrum.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The bride wore a white satin gown with a finger-tip veil held in place with orange blossoms and white satin rosettes. Her corsage of beautiful orchids were wired from Berlin, Germany, by her brother, Pfc. Tommy Keenel. She carried a bouquet of orchids, pink roses and white carnations.

Her attendants were: Mrs. Kathleen Daniels, San Bernardino, California, matron of honor; Misses Colleen Keenel, Jennie Lee Keenel and Ruth Howard were the bridesmaids. Mrs. Daniels, Misses Colleen Keenel and Jennie Lee Keenel are all sisters of the bride. Mr. William Diehrich, Glade, was the best man. A. D. Butherus, Clayton Konack and E. A. Hamlin assisted by William Keenel and William Updegrave were the ushers. Dorene Firman was flower girl. Larry White served as the Bible boy.

The bride's mother wore a wine colored velvet dress with black accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a navy-blue suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was also of white gardenias.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed. Mrs. Roy Hudson, Mrs. Burley Lewis and Mrs. Pearl Durett were in charge and helped cut the cake and serve punch to 50 guests. Mrs. Kathleen Daniels also assisted.

The couple left Monday morning for the coast. The bride wore a gray colored suit with brown accessories. She wore the same corsage of orchids which were wired to her from her brother.

The bride is a native of California. She had attended two years of school at the Roseburg Junior Academy. She also served as an assistant teacher while in attendance. The groom claims Oregon as his home state. For the past two years he and his father have been operating a trucking concern near Glade. The newlyweds will make their home near Glade by the first of December where the groom will continue in the trucking business with his father.
