Two Choices Now Open to World, Lindbergh Says
WASHINGTON, Dec. 18. — (U.P.)—Charles A. Lindbergh says man's science has brought him to a choice of whether he will live "in an organized world or in constant insecurity."

Aircraft and the atomic bomb, the one-time non-interventionist declared yesterday, have made it "no longer a question of whether or not we should have world organization, but of what form it should take."

"I have advocated a world organization backed by military power, an organization led by western peoples who developed modern science with its aviation and its atomic bomb," Lindbergh said.

"But I must confess to you that I am fearful of the use of power. I plead for strong military forces, only because I believe the alternative is worse."

Sued for Divorce, Vet Kills Wife, Friend, Self
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 18. — (U.P.)—Coming home after "23 miserable rotten months" in service overseas to find his wife suing for divorce, Julius F. Sokol, 29, killed his wife, her male companion, Joseph Oliver, and himself. Detective Lieutenant Gene Bechtol said today.

Sokol's description of Army life was contained, Bechtol said, in an unmailed letter to Mrs. Sokol's parents.

"I need her and the only way I can have her," Bechtol quoted Sokol's letter, "is to die with her."

Husband Questioned in Shooting of His Wife
ASTORIA, Ore., Dec. 18. — (U.P.)—Russell L. Cahill, 43, was being questioned today in connection with the shooting of his wife, Vera, 42, at their home near Seaside Sunday.

Sheriff Paul Kearney said Cahill told him he and his wife had been arguing over her plans to obtain a divorce.

The woman was shot in the shoulder, and taken to a hospital.
