HELEN GROVE HUMM BECOMES BRIDE OF JOHN STRICKLIN, THURSDAY

A cross, tall cathedral candles and pale pink chrysanthemums formed the beautiful improvised altar at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stricklin, 307 East Oak Street, Roseburg, Thursday, December 27, when their son, John Stricklin, U. S. Navy, and Miss Helen Grove Humm, of Frederick, Maryland, were united in marriage. Father William L. Blaker, of St. George's Episcopal Church, performed the impressive single ring ceremony at four o'clock in the afternoon. Only the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stricklin; his aunt, Mrs. Frances Holstead, of Portland, and Mrs. William L. Blaker, were present.

The bride was charming in a winter white wool gabardine dress with brown accessories. Her corsage was of orchids.

Following the ceremony, the beautiful wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom, was cut and refreshments were served, after which the bride and bridegroom left for Riter's Back Party on the North Umpqua River to spend their honeymoon.

The bride was graduated from Hood College at Frederick, Maryland, in English and has been engaged as an instructor of English and mathematics in the High School there. The bridegroom was a student at University of Idaho, when he enlisted in the Navy in 1942. He served 16 months in the Atlantic and African theatre of operations. He expects to receive his discharge from the Navy in the near future and plans to resume his studies at University of Idaho, where he is majoring in construction engineering. His father is secretary-treasurer of the National Farm Loan Association with headquarters in Roseburg. The bride and bridegroom will make their home in California until the latter receives his discharge. He is at present stationed at the U. S. Navy base at Alameda, Calif.

WANDA W. ALTHAUS PRESENTS JUNIOR STUDENTS IN RECITAL

Wanda W. Althaus presented her junior students of her piano class in a charming recital at her studio on West Lane Street Saturday. The guests were delighted with the unusual program of Christmas solos, duets and trios and the occasion marked the first recital for many taking part on the program.

Much appreciation was expressed as to the pupils' splendid technique and expression in presenting their numbers in excellent rhythm. The Yuletide spirit was carried out from the beautiful decorations to a brilliantly lighted tree. Santa Claus arrived with gifts and completed the program by playing a piano solo in his attractive costume, only to be discovered later as Billy Dunham. Keith Barrows was an exceptionally fine master of ceremonies for the occasion.

Judy Kobornik responded to her encore with a vocal solo; Ray Burgharte, advanced student, entered with a beautiful piano solo and Iris Herring and Fay Monroe played a background of duet music while the gifts were distributed and refreshments were served.

THELMA YOUNG BECOMES BRIDE OF S-SGT. STRICKLIN IN EUGENE, DECEMBER 16

Miss Thelma Young, Roseburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Young of Junction City, became the bride of S-Sgt. John Stricklin, son of Mrs. Sadie Stricklin, of Oregon City, December 16, at two o'clock in the afternoon at the First Christian Church in Eugene. Rev. Mr. T. Leland Morgan performed the single-ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate family of the couple. The bride wore a deep pink crepe street-length dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias and narellis. Her heart-shaped locket was a gift of the bridegroom. Mrs. Ned F. Young, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor, and wore a street-length dress of aqua with black accessories and a corsage of carnations. William Stricklin, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride's mother wore a street dress of black with a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue suit with a corsage of red roses.

The wedding dinner was served at the Del Rey, at which time the two-tiered wedding cake, decorated with tiny pink rosebuds, was cut by the bride and bridegroom.

For traveling the bride chose a black suit with a winter white top coat.

The bride was graduated from Eugene High and worked in Eugene before coming to Roseburg three and half years ago to accept a position in the Land Office. The bridegroom was graduated from University of Oregon and is now stationed at Camp Haan, Calif. He returned to camp December 20 and will be joined there the first of the year by his bride. They will make their home at Riverside, Calif.
