DENS 23 HOLD INTERESTING MEETING WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

Larry Henninger and Rod Newland, den chiefs, called an important meeting of Dens 23 Wednesday afternoon at the Methodist church for the purpose of electing new officers and holding an inspection of the dens.

New officers elected included: Bill Hercher, denmer; Tommy Keel, denmer; and Ed J. Nolte, secretary. Mrs. E. K. Jones and Mrs. Vernon Keel are the den mothers.

The two den chiefs have worked with the den mothers in the finest possible manner and their time and effort are greatly appreciated by everyone in the organization.

Plans were made for a potluck dinner to be held sometime in February to observe the blue and gold month celebrating the 35th anniversary of scouting and also the founding of the Cub Scouts.

Dens 2 and 3 will meet after school next Wednesday at the Methodist church at which time Lloyd Roberts, who recently returned from overseas service with the Navy, will instruct the group in tie knots. Members are asked to bring their own rope.

The holiday motif was elaborately carried out in the exterior and interior decorations of the home. Dancing was enjoyed and later Miss Micelli served lovely refreshments to: Miss Frances Moore, Miss Betty Jane Roberts, Miss Grace Ellen Simpson, Miss Georgia Johnson, Miss Ruth Hansen, Miss Jerril Johnson, Miss Carol Crossland, Miss Jeanne Dillard, Miss Gerry Pett, Miss Wanda Omschied, Miss Patricia Savage, Miss Shirley Carter, Craig Dishman, Jim Davidson, Jack Horn, Dee Bover, Glenn Miller, Bob Bashford, Sam Shoemaker, Jr., Harry Pargeter, Jack Weaver, Alan and James Knudson, Norman Moore, Mel Baker and Dick Carmichael.

ROSEBURG GIRL MARRIES IN VANCOUVER, WASH.

The wedding of Miss Myrtle Fate and Arthur L. Perkins was solemnized December 29 in Vancouver, Wash. The bride is a popular young Roseburg girl and the bridegroom's home is at Day's Creek. He recently returned from overseas, where he served 42 months with the U. S. Army. The bride wore an Alice-blue colored tailored suit and her corsage was pink rosebuds and gardenias. Mrs. Alvin Helm, a close friend of the bride, was matron of honor.

Following a honeymoon spent in Puget and at coast points, the couple returned to Roseburg to make their home in their new residence, which they recently purchased.

The New Year's motif was attractively carried out in the decorations. Visiting was enjoyed during the pleasant evening hours.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Robinson and son, John, entertained as their dinner guests New Year's Eve at their beautiful home on the North Umpqua River: Miss Helen Casey, Miss Naomi Scott, of Roseburg, and Miss Myth Haran, who was en route from Portland to her home in California. Miss Haran was an overnight guest at the Robinson home. She formerly made her home in Roseburg.

Vows Exchanged by Candlelight

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow T. Stiltner

Miss June Maxine Bowen, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bowen of Roseburg, became the bride of Woodrow T. Stiltner, son of Ross Stiltner, of this city, at an impressive candlelight ceremony at four o'clock the afternoon of December 28 at the bride's home on Winchester street. Dr. C. A. Edwards performed the single ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate family of the couple.

A Christmas setting formed the decorations with sprays of evergreens, holly and poinsettia blossoms predominating. Christmas trees decorated with tinsel and poinsettias completed the setting.

Mrs. Fred Bowen, mother of the bride, followed the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bridal party to take their places at the improvised altar.

The bride was very lovely in a floor-length gown of white satin and net, fashioned with a long train, wrist-length sleeves and a high-neck voke of net. Her silk illusion veil was edged in rose-point lace and held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of pink rosebuds and gardenias. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Perkins, of Roseburg, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, were attendants. Mrs. Perkins was charming in an Alice-blue colored tailored suit with a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds. The bride's mother was attractive in a fuchsia-colored dress and a white gardenia corsage.

An informal reception followed, at which time the beautifully decorated wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom, was cut and served. Mrs. Arthur Jenkins assisted in serving.

For traveling the bride chose a fuchsia colored suit with black accessories and a gardenia corsage. Following a honeymoon trip to points south, the bride and bridegroom returned to Roseburg and will make their home at 1313 Winchester street, until they can build their new home in this city.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School in the 1939 class and the last year has been employed at the Farm Bureau Exchange. The bridegroom is associated with his brother in the logging business.

MISS ELLEN BUSSELL AND GEORGE R. BURTON, JR. MARRY AT FOREST GROVE

Miss Ellen Bussell, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bussell of Roseburg, was united in marriage with George R. Burton, Jr., of Portland, in a wedding ceremony in the Pacific University chapel, at Forest Grove at high noon, November 4, with Miss Gertrude Boyd Crane reading the service.

Pink and white chrysanthemums and tall white candles formed the decorations. Mrs. Mary Benson Dunlap and Albert Creutz provided the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by Ronald W. Brown of Portland. She was charming in a wedding gown of white brocade and carried a white prayer book covered with white roses.

Mrs. Clayton Judy, matron of honor, was the bride's only attendant. She was charming in a pink marquisette gown. The flower girl, Charlean Brown, was dressed in a pink taffeta frock. Both carried colonial nosegays.

The bridegroom was attended by Albert C. Turner, Jr., of Portland. Clayton Judy and Albert C. Turner, Sr., were ushers. A large decorated wedding cake was served at the reception, which followed at the home of Mrs. Dean Pittman in Forest Grove. White chrysanthemums formed the decorations.

For traveling, the bride chose a brown suit with black accessories.

Following a honeymoon in British Columbia, the couple went to Portland, where they are residing at 2684 S. W. Buckingham, while their new home is being completed in West Slope, Portland. Mr. Burton is a member of an electrical business firm in Portland.
