Miss Arlene Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Watson, of Baldwin Hills Village, Los Angeles, had the principle character lead in the play, "I'd Rather Be Young," presented at Geller theater January 2-3. This was the second play she has appeared in at the same theater, where she has been taking drama since November.

Last year, Arlene was accompanist for the Junior Orchestra at Audubon Junior High School and this year plays bass viol in the Senior Orchestra.

She is a pupil of Kathleen Hart

Poster, voice teacher, and will appear in a recital at the Studio Club in Hollywood in May. She sang three solos in the Christmas program presented in the Baldwin Hills Village clubhouse, December 23. She was thirteen years of age December 27.

The Watson family is well known in Roseburg, having made their home here for a number of years and where Arlene was born. Mr. Watson was transferred to Southern California from Roseburg by the Forest Service. The last year of their residence here, Mrs. Watson was proof-reader for the News-Review.

Miss Betty Jane Gilkeson, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Gilkeson of Roseburg, was married Sunday, December 30, at the First Presbyterian Church in Roseburg to Richard Earl Henbest, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Henbest, also of this city. Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the impressive ceremony at eight o'clock in the morning in the presence of a hundred relatives and friends.

The center aisle, marked with white satin ribbons, was used by the bride's party to advance to the altar, which was decorated by The Fern Florist with huge baskets of white chrysanthemums and greenery and lighted white candles. Proceeding the ceremony, Mrs. Homer Grow played softly on the pipe organ, and accompanied Mrs. E. G. Randolph, of Medford, aunt of the bride, who very charmingly sang, "Because" and "Prayer Perfect."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a floor-length gown of white marquisette and lace, fashioned with a basque-effect bodice, long sleeves, neckline outlined in seed pearls and a full-length train. Her full-length bridal veil was held in place by a spray of frezias. She carried a shower bouquet of red roses, gardenias and freesias.

Miss Jeanne Dillard, maid of honor, was charming in a floor-length gown of yellow chiffon fashioned with a very full skirt and basque bodice. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and carnations with a matching spray of the flowers in her hair. Miss Barbara June Randolph, of Medford, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Mary Lee Strang, also of Medford, were bridesmaids and wore identical dresses of blue and pink net fashioned to match that worn by the maid of honor. They carried pink rosebuds and white carnations with matching sprays in their hair.

The bride's mother wore a gray pin-stripe suit with matching accessories and Mrs. Henbest wore a gray and blue suit. Both mothers wore gardenia corsages. Harold Hiney acted as best man and Edgar Hiney and H. A. "Bob" Johnson were ushers.

A wedding breakfast followed at the Tavern for members of the bridal party and relatives. Covers were placed for forty. White candles and low bowls of white chrysanthemums were arranged about the room. The beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom.

For traveling the bride chose a gold-colored dress with brown accessories and a topcoat of contrasting blue. Her corsage was of gardenias.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and attended University of Oregon. The bridegroom attended the Roseburg Senior High School and for the last two years has been in the Navy and at present is stationed at San Diego.

This membership was taken out in the name of Mrs. Morris H. Roach. A foreign missionary honorary membership was taken out last fall in the name of Mrs. W. M. Campbell. This membership assists in giving scholarships for missionary training.
