Harry Hildeburn Talks Of Hardwood Project

GRANTS PASS, Ore., Jan. 16.—Possibilities of a hardwood mill for the Grants Pass area were under discussion today, when Harry J. Hildeburn of Roseburg conferred with H. C. Obye and C. D. Cameron of the Siskiyou National Forest, Mayor J. A. Wharton, and C. W. Thornberry, Chamber of Commerce manager.

Hildeburn has been a mill man for many years, owning a firm until recently near Yoncalla. "Grants Pass is as good a bet for a hardwood mill to handle oak as any place in the country," he said today. Hildeburn stated that in addition to the quantities of oak scattered about Josephine county, alder and maple are also available.

He was advised by Obye and Cameron that there is sufficient hardwood to support a sawmill, but that the problem will lie in transportation to such a mill, as the timber is scattered about a half-dozen areas in the county.

Sued Husband Ordered Not to Molest Family

An order restraining Lester McDaniel, Sutherlin, from molesting his wife or children was issued by Judge Carl E. Wimberly yesterday, as McDaniel's wife, Mrs. LaVerne Elizabeth McDaniel, filed suit for divorce. Judge Wimberly also ordered McDaniel to appear January 23 to show cause why he should not pay $75 a month support money for his children, Bernis Kay, 4, and Tona Elizabeth, 2, during the pendency of the divorce suit; $100 attorney's fees to enable his wife to prosecute the suit, and to pay court costs of $25.

The McDaniel's were married at Virginia City, Nevada, June 14, 1940. Mrs. McDaniel filed the divorce complaint yesterday, charging cruelty.
