Marry at Church Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd A. Epperly.

Miss Lenore Neves, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Neves, of Garden Valley, and Floyd Epperly, son of Mrs. Ernest Trussell, also of Garden Valley, were married at two o'clock January 8 by Rev. A. M. Evans at the Church of God.

The bride wore a beautiful blue frock with white accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. Only close relatives were present.

The couple are making their home in Garden Valley at the bridegroom's home place, where he has resided since he was four years of age until he joined the National Guard in 1940. He went to the South Pacific in 1942, after 18 months of training, and was in the battle of New Guinea, where he was wounded and sent to Australia for the following several months. He received his honorable discharge at Fort Lewis, Wash., September 7, 1945.

On January 13, a wedding reception was held in honor of the couple at the home of his parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Trussell and Eldred. The living room was beautifully decorated. The serving table, covered by an attractive lace cloth, was centered with a large wedding cake, topped by the ornament used for the golden wedding cake of the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Niday, and flanked by tall lighted white candles. Mrs. Trussell rang a gold-colored bell to quiet the guests while the bridal couple cut the cake, after which they were escorted to their table, which was decorated in white and centered with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Trussell was assisted in serving by Mrs. E. A. Utterback and Mrs. George Niday.

Those honoring Mr. and Mrs. Epperly included: Mr. and Mrs. A. Niday, grandparents of the bridegroom, who were married 51 years ago last December 15, Mr. and Mrs. Don D. Neves, parents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Day, Mr. and Mrs. W. Compton, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Utterback, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Adams, Mr. and Mrs. George Niday, Miss Darlene Niday, Dean Fogel, W. M. Wilson, Charles B. Wilson, Eldred Trussell, Frank Neves, Jim Baird, Sandra Day, Albert and Patricia Niday and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Trussell.

NEW OFFICERS OF D. OF U. V. ARE INSTALLED FRIDAY

Florence Nightingale Tent No. 15, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War 1861-1865, held their annual installation of officers Friday evening at the K. of P. hall. Following a short business meeting, Mrs. Laura England, department president, assisted by Mrs. Grace Conn, department secretary, both of Eugene, acted as installing officer, installing Mary Peterson as assistant department guide, then the following tent officers: President, Essie Olson; junior vice president, Eva Ware; chaplain, Mary Peterson; treasurer, Anna Peterson; council member No. 1, Ruth Plumer; council member No. 2, Cora Dourte; patriotic instructor, Doris Dunning; secretary, Anna Carson; press correspondent, Eva Ware; musician, Myrtle Kleenhammer; color bearer No. 1, Evelyn Cyrus; color bearer No. 4, Virginia Cyrus. Other officers who were absent on account of illness, will be installed at a later meeting.

Lovely corsages were presented to the department officers: Laura England, Grace Conn, Virginia Cyrus, and Mary Peterson, and to the retiring tent president, Ruth Plumer, and the new president, Essie Olson. A lovely fleur-de-lis gift set was presented to Mrs. Plumer, from the tent, in grateful appreciation for her splendid work in the organization during the past year.

Following a social hour delicious refreshments were served at a table beautifully decorated to carry out the patriotic motif. Covers were placed for Mrs. England and Mrs. Conn, guests and Essie Olson, Ruth Plumer, Virginia Cyrus, Mary Peterson, Myrtle Kleenhammer, Evelyn Cyrus, Cora Dourte, Anna Peterson, Doris Dunning, Eva Ware, Anna Carson, Nettie Wilbur, and Mayme Guile, members. The tent felt greatly honored by having a department president as installing officer, this being the first time in nine years that this has been possible, also to have four department officers at a meeting. The next regular meeting of the tent will be held January 25.

Vows Exchanged by Candlelight

Mrs. Roy A. Johnson

Arrangements of chrysanthemums of fuschias and tall white tapers formed a very lovely setting for the recent wedding of Miss Jean Geddes, youngest daughter of City Recorder and Mrs. A. J. Geddes, when she became the bride of Roy A. Johnson, of Seattle, son of Mr. Johnson, Sr., of Burton, Wash., at a candlelight ceremony at five o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on East Washington street, Rev. Walter A. MacArthur, pastor of the Methodist Church, performed the impressive service in the presence of relatives and a few close friends.

The bride was very beautiful in a floor-length wedding gown of white satin, fashioned with a tucked bodice with sweetheart neckline and short sleeves. She wore a gardenia in her hair and carried a shower bouquet of pink rosebuds arranged with loops of tulle.

The bride's mother wore a black suit and her corsage was of roses.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was enjoyed at the Hotel Umpqua, where a beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut.

For traveling the bride chose a gold-colored suit with a beige hat with gold veil and brown accessories. Her corsage was of rosebuds.

After the reception, the bride and bridegroom left for points north and are now at home to their friends at 1562 Olive Way, Seattle.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High and Sacramento Junior College, after which she attended Willamette University at Salem for a year and completed her senior year at University of Washington in Seattle. Since that time, she has been a member of the women's department of the Seattle police force. The bridegroom was graduated from University of Washington at Seattle, where he majored in journalism. He is now employed by the Western Lithographic Company in Seattle.

O. E. S. GRAND OFFICER IS GUEST HERE OVER WEEKEND

An interesting visitor in Roseburg over the weekend was Mrs. Lorena McNair, of Ashland, associate Grand Matron of the Order of Eastern Star of Oregon.

Mrs. G. W. Marshall, worthy matron of Roseburg Chapter, arranged an afternoon meeting of her officers Saturday at the Masonic Temple, at which time Mrs. McNair held a school of instruction.

Mrs. McNair was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Williams on South Pine Street during her visit and for her pleasure, Mrs. Williams entertained at dinner at the Umpqua Hotel Saturday evening. Covers were placed for Mrs. McNair, guest of honor, and Mrs. C. E. Wimberly, a member of the Jurisprudence Committee of the Grand Chapter of Oregon; Mrs. G. W. Marshall, worthy matron of Roseburg Chapter, and the hostess, Mrs. Williams. Following the dinner, the guests went to the Williams home, where visitine was enjoyed.

JOLLY CIRCLE CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING WEDNESDAY

A most delightful meeting of the Jolly Circle Club was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Floyd Simpson in West Melrose.

After the business meeting the pleasant afternoon hours were spent in finishing the quilt, which was made for the Bursick family, who recently lost their home by fire.

At the tea hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to: Mrs. J. B. Foiden, Mrs. Virgil Lynn, Mrs. Verney Sanders, Miss Clara Sehlun, Mrs. E. D. Smith, Mrs. A. M. Ison, Mrs. Freeman Williams, Mrs. Oakley Bibby, Virginia Lynn and Lola Bibby.

The next meeting will be on January 30 at the home of Mrs. Freeman Williams on the Callahan Trail road. A white elephant exchange will be held.
