MUSICAL AFFAIR IS GIVEN AT REDSPORT

REDSPOUR — Through the efforts of Mayor John Skallure, the music lovers of Redspour were entertained last Wednesday evening by a small group of music students from the University of Oregon, in a concert in the auditorium of the Redspour High School. Heading the program was Miss Iris Duva, dramatic soprano, who presented two numbers, "Nora" and "The Lonely Heart," and "Do Not Go My Love." As an encore she sang "Zwignung." She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Sylvia Killman.

A very promising young violinist played four selections by Handel from the "Sonata in A Major, No. 1." Miss Killman, at the piano, played two solos by Chopin: "Nocturne in E Flat" and "Waltz in E Major." Bartone James McMillen delighted the audience while accompanying himself at the piano with Cole Porter's "Night and Day," "Begin the Beguine," and "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," by Jerome Kern.

During a short intermission the Rev. David Senan of Gardiner, in a brief speech, introduced John Stehn, the acting dean of the University of Oregon Music School during the absence of Dean Craft, who has been in England. Dean Craft has returned from abroad, but was unable to be present with his students in Redspour.

The entertainment was well received by residents of this community. An effort will be made to bring pupils of the University to this city monthly hereafter. The Rev. Jesse Griffiths of the Community Church, took care of correspondence relative to the presentation, and the mayor visited the university and arranged for the appearance of the musicians.
