Miss Virginia Cyrus.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Plumer announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Virginia Cyrus, to James F. Marr, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Marr, of Roseburg.

The bride-elect is employed as clerk at the Douglas County Selective Service office. The bridegroom-elect, who served overseas with Company D, 162nd Infantry, U. S. Army, recently received his honorable discharge and is now employed by the Si Dillard Motor Company.

The wedding will take place early in the spring.

MRS. ROBERT KEEFE IS HOSTESS TO T.N.T. CLUB TUESDAY

Mrs. Robert Keefe graciously entertained the T.N.T. Club at a charming eight o'clock dessert-supper Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Howard Marsh.

Covers were placed at an attractively appointed table for Mrs. Mattie McConnell, a guest, and Miss Agnes Pitchford, Mrs. Howard Marsh, Mrs. Cliff Thornton, Mrs. Sherman Morris, Mrs. William McCullum and the hostess, Mrs. Keefe.

A collection was taken by the club to be donated to the March of Dimes Drive. Games and cards were in play with prizes going to the winners.

The club will be entertained at an eight o'clock dessert-supper the evening of February 5 at the home of Mrs. William McCullum at 926 South Main Street.

MRS. Z. T. ADAMS IS HOSTESS AT DELIGHTFUL BRIDGE-LUNCHEON

Daffodils and acacia formed a very pretty motif for the serving atble used by Mrs. Z. T. Adams Tuesday, when she entertained Mrs. K. D. Adams, Mrs. Bill Courter, Mrs. C. W. Callison and Mrs. Mitchell Moore as guests at a lovely one o'clock luncheon at her home.

Contract bridge was in play during the afternoon with Mrs. K. D. Adams winning the high score.

PIANO STUDENTS ARE PRESENTED IN RECITAL AT RAND HOME THURSDAY

Mrs. C. K. Rand presented a group of her piano pupils in a charming recital at her attractive home Thursday evening. Chrysanthemums and lauristinus formed a pretty motif for the occasion.

Duets were played on the program by John Rand and Ronnie Smith, and Doris Rand and Ramona Fae Foree. Piano solos were played by: Doris Rand, Shirley Rand, Zona Wilshire, Freddie Hargis, Ramona Fae Foree, Karalee Hickman, Marilyn Myers, John Rand, Janet Hargis, Ronnie Smith, Willa Wilshire, Paula Smith and Darlene Hickman.

Parents present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Smith, Mrs. Fred Hargis, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rand and children, Norman Beverly and Bonnie; Charles Foree, Mrs. W. E. Wilshire, Mrs. Guy Hickman and Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rand.

Following the enjoyable recital program, Mrs. Rand served lovely refreshments assisted by her daughter, Doris, and Zona and Willa Wilshire and Darlene Hickman.

MERRY-GO-ROUND CLUB IS ENTERTAINED AT VEHRING HOME WEDNESDAY

Chrysanthemums and ferns formed the attractive decorations for the one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon given Wednesday by Mrs. Fred Vehring, when she entertained the Merry-Go-Round Club at her lovely home on South Chadwick Street.

Covers were placed for: Mrs. J. R. Wilson, Mrs. J. Earl Pickens, Mrs. L. J. Fullerton, Mrs. Howard Carnes, Mrs. R. D. Kleist, Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mrs. J. K. Masters, Mrs. Mable P. Taylor, Mrs. W. H. Carter, Mrs. Archie Wilson, Mrs. George Johnson, Mrs. Roy Burks, Mrs. Clay Smith, Mrs. Earl Smith and the hostess, Mrs. Vehring.

A collection was taken for the March of Dimes fund and the afternoon was pleasantly spent in visiting, sewing and playing pinochle. The next club meeting will be the afternoon of February 6, the place of which will be announced later.

PORTLAND VISITOR COMPLIMENTED AT DINNER WEDNESDAY

Mrs. John Young and Miss Helen Casey entertained at an informal dinner Wednesday evening at Turn-Aruond in compliment to Mrs. Adeline Fields, of Portland, who has been here a few weeks visiting her mother, Mrs. George E. Houck. Miss Naomi Scott was an additional guest at the dinner. A social evening followed the dinner.

Vows Exchanged by Candlelight

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Spaulding.

The fireplace, banked with laurel and flanked by huge baskets of pale pink chrysanthemums and candlelabra holding tall white cathedral candles formed the improvised altar for the impressive wedding ceremony, when Miss Roberta Crawford, only daughter of Mrs. R. E. Crawford, of Roseburg, and the late R. E. Crawford, became the bride of Byron Spaulding, GM 3-c, U. S. Coast Guard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Spaulding, of Little Rock, Arkansas, Saturday evening January 19, at the attractive home of Miss Gladys H. Strong on South Main street. Numerous white candles were lighted about the spacious rooms of the home. Dr. Frank B. Matthews, pastor of Highland Baptist Church in Portland and formerly pastor of the First Baptist Church of Roseburg, performed the double ring ceremony at eight-thirty o'clock in the presence of relatives and a few close friends.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Gladys Strong, who wore an attractive floor-length gown of blue crepe with a corsage of carnations, played softly on the piano as Mrs. Bernard Saar, in a pastel blue formal, lighted the candles, followed by the bridal party taking their place at the altar to the strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin.

The bride was very beautiful in a floor-length wedding gown of white jersey, fashioned with a fitted bodice, three-quarter length sleeves and sweetheart neckline. An overskirt of sheer marquisette was gathered at the waist. Her finger-tip veil, edged with fine lace ,was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums and white carnations, centered with a large purple orchid. The bouquet was tied with a large satin ribbon with a shower of white satin ribbons knotted wtih stephanotis.

Miss Rebekah Putnam, of Portland, roommate of the bride, was maid of honor and was lovely in a floor length sheer gown of pale blue. Her flowers were pink carnations and fern.

Bernard Saar, of Roseburg, acted as best man.

The bride's mother wore an attractive floor-length gown of black fashioned with a black marquisette bodice embroidered in white. Her corsage was of red roses.

After the ceremony, a phone call from the bride's brother, Earl Crawford, of Baltimore, Maryland, was received from New York City, where he had gone especially to make the call. He was only recently discharged from service with the U. S. Navy and went to Maryland to accept a position with the Westinghouse Company.

A reception followed. The table, covered by an attractive lace cloth, was centered by a beautifully decorated tiered wedding cake, which was cut by the bride and bridegroom and was served by Miss Strong. Mrs. Charles A. Brand poured the coffee and Mrs. Earl F. Strong, of Oakland poured the punch. Miss Amanda Anderson, of Salem, and Mrs. Bernard Saar assisted about the rooms and in serving.

For traveling the bride chose a rose colored dress with a top coat of green trimmed in leopard skin with matching leopard hat and muff. She wore an orchid corsage. Following a wedding trip to Victoria, B. C., they will make their home in Seattle, where the bridegroom is stationed by the Coast Guard. He expects to be discharged from service the first of March, at which time the couple will come to Roseburg to spend a week with the bride's mother at the home of Miss Strong, before they leave for Little Rock, Arkansas, to make their home.

Out of town guests included: Miss Rebekah Putnam, Mrs. Juanita Nelsen, Mrs. Amelia Hansell, Miss Jean Whalen, Mrs. George Green and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Caraway, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Strong, of Oakland, and Miss Amanda Anderson, of Salem.

The bride is very well known in Roseburg, having attended the local schools, before continuing her education in Portland. At the time of her marriage, she was in charge of the x-ray department at the University of Oregon Tuberculosis hospital in Portland. Her father, the late R. E. Crawford, was with the U. S. Land Office in Roseburg for many years and was an officer in the First Baptist Church of this city. Mrs. Crawford made her home in Portland with her son and daughter until a year and a half ago, when she returned to Roseburg to make her home with Miss Strong. The bridegroom was graduated from Baylor Military School in Chattanooga, Tenn. He has been with the United States Coast Guard for three years, serving two years overseas. He was in four major campaigns including Africa, Sicily, Italy and France.

WOMEN'S COUNCIL HAS INTERESTING MEETING FRIDAY

The Women's Council of the First Christian Church held a delightful all-day meeting Friday at the home of Mrs. J. R. Wilson.

The Ladies Aid session was opened by the president, Mrs. Edith S. Ackert, and each member responded to roll call with a Bible verse pertaining to peace. Mrs. Bertha Emmons read a very timely article on peace written by her son.

A paper-bag luncheon was enjoyed during the noon hour. The afternoon session of the Missionary Society was opened by the president, Mrs. Emmons, in charge of the devotions.

Continuing the study of the book, "Conquering Personal Problems," Mrs. H. F. Snyder very interestingly read the chapter, "Mastering Fear and Anxiety." The librarian reported six missionary books had been read during the last month.

Those enjoying the day were: Mrs. Elsie Coffel, Mrs. C. A. Munson, Mrs. Cora Church, Mrs. Edith S. Ackert, Mrs. Mary Plumer, Mrs. Bertha Emmons, Mrs. Henry Snyder, Mrs. L. J. Saunders, Mrs. Tessie Miller, Mrs. Anna Able, Mrs. Lucie Ingels, Mrs. C. G. Stanton, Mrs. Anna Blaskey, Mrs. Shuett, Mrs. W. H. Carter and the hostess, Mrs. Wilson.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY GIVEN FOR MRS. RITA FRITTS

Mrs. Rita Fritts was honored at a delightful surprise party on her birthday Friday afternoon, when a group of friends called at her home in honor of the occasion. A lovely gift was presented to Mrs. Fritts from Mrs. Lee Miller, Mrs. H. L. Bailey, Mrs. Karl McCown, Mrs. Vernon Smith and Mrs. Howard Kluver.

Visiting was enjoyed and later a beautifully decorated birthday cake was cut and served. The lace-covered table was centered with a bouquet of daffodils and acacia.

INFORMAL DINNER IS ENJOYED AT PICKENS HOME THURSDAY EVENING

Mrs. Ivan Pickens and son, Jon, entertained at a delightful six o'clock dinner at their attractive home on Fowler street Thursday evening, having as guests: Mrs. Elma Goodman, of Portland; and Mrs. Vera McClintock Jones and son, Terry. Jasmine formed a pretty motif for the table. Visiting was enjoyed during the pleasant evening hours.
