Another Tag Bout Scheduled on Mat Program Saturday

Douglas County wrestling fans will be treated to something new in the grappling sport here at the Roseburg Armory arena next Saturday night.

Pete Belcastro, Butch Dawson, Al Szasz and Angelo Martinelli have been signed by Matchmaker Don Owen for double duty. Each of the four matmen will engage in 20-minute, one-fall matches and will later return for a tag team match.

The tag team event, introduced here last week, proved a big hit with local fans—with Pierre LaBelle and Martinelli defeating Belcastro and Dawson. The villains charged unfair tactics by the referee and challenged all comers to get into the ring with them the following week.

So Szasz and Butch will be meeting Pete and Martinelli in the tag event, but not until after Belcastro engages Szasz and Dawson. meets Martinelli in regulation tilts.

All three events should be red-hot battles with the usual clean vs. meanie competition furnishing fans with an evening pack-jammed with fireworks.

Belcastro, the "Walloping Wop from Weed," is one of the most hated but biggest local attractions at the present time.

Owen will be giving fans a chance to select their favorite grappling style from the Saturday show—straightaway wrestling or tag-team wrestling. A vote will be taken following the last fall.
