To Be Heard at Baptist Church

Rev. and Mrs. Percy Crawford of the Young People's Church of the Air, and the male quartet will conduct services at the First Baptist Church in Roseburg Thursday night, 7:30. Rev. Mr. Crawford broadcasts his program over 250 stations of the Mutual network every Sunday. He and his party were in Roseburg some three years ago. Before Rev. Mr. Crawford speaks, Mrs. Crawford and the quartet composed of Lewis Lockhart, first tenor; Ray Printz, second tenor; Joe Springer, second bass, and Kenneth Bron, first bass, will give a musical program. The general public is invited to this service but because of limited seating capacity those who attend are urged to come early.

Racket Suspected in Fast Tavern Owner Changes

PORTLAND, Feb. 19.—(AP)—An investigation into rapid turnover in tavern ownership and more stringent regulations on beer tavern licenses have been approved by the State Liquor Control Commission.

The commission yesterday said the sale of taverns at inflated prices and the appearance of a "racket" and reported its new probe would seek to protect investors.

Mrs. I. Wollenberg Dies in California

Mrs. I. Wollenberg, 87, former resident of Roseburg for more than 25 years, died Feb. 16, at San Francisco, where she had made her home in recent years. Born in Ebing, Germany, she came to Oregon shortly after her marriage to Isadore Wollenberg, first taking up residence at Canyonville, where her husband joined his brother the late H. Wollenberg, in the general merchandise business. Later they moved to Roseburg, where Mr. Wollenberg and I. Abraham were associated in business for a few years. Alfred and Isadore Wollenberg later established the mercantile firm of Wollenberg Bros. in Roseburg.
