

Rangers Planning Season's Work in Umpqua Forest

Rangers of the Umpqua National Forest are in a planning conference this week to map their work for the coming season. Two representatives of the regional forester's office at Portland, who participated in the conference here, left today.

In attendance at the meeting, are Ranger John R. Montgomery, Tiller, of the South Umpqua district; Ranger Joe Elliott, Diamond Lake district; Ranger Rex Wakefield, Disston, Ore., Bohemia district, and Ranger George W. Churchill, Glide, North Umpqua district.

Otto Lindh, assistant regional forester in charge of fire control activities, and Howard Phelps, on the administrative staff of the regional forester at Portland; M. M. Nelson, in charge of timber sales, and Ray E. Hampton, in charge of fire control for the Umpqua Forest, and Clarence K. Rand, of the administrative staff, joined the conference.

The rangers have analyzed projects which are mapped for the coming season. They have considered ways and means for the accomplishment (such as availability of manpower) of proposed construction, V. V. Harpham, supervisor, said. Later in the year, Lindh will make a "general inspection" of the Umpqua Forest to see how closely its activities have followed the plans formulated in the conference.

pus before acting on the College Inn's renewed license appeal.

The attorney for the owners yesterday told the commission university deans had said they "would rather have the students drinking their beer next to the campus where they could control them, than drinking in Eugene and suburban taverns."

Owners of the inn, James F. Broby and John Schaefer, reported they paid $11,000 for the inn, located next to the campus, last September and that the tavern had been selling beer since prohibition was repealed. The commission refused the tavern a 1946 license on a ruling December 17.

Diphtheria Only Disease To Increase in Oregon

PORTLAND, Feb. 21.—(AP)—Only one disease—diphtheria—increased sharply in Oregon last year, the State Board of Health reported yesterday.

The diphtheria rise from 173 to 253 cases was attributed by Dr. Harold M. Erickson, state health officer, to a wartime decrease in immunization, and incoming residents from non-immunized areas.

Tropical diseases have proved no hazard in Oregon's temperate climate, the board reported, although returning veterans may carry malaria and dysentery.

Measles topped the disease roster during the past week, with 144 cases—almost three times the total during the corresponding week last year.

NOTICE

Districts (except school), cities, towns and counties that employ five people or more for at least 600 hours each per year, must notify the PUBLIC EMPLOYEES RETIREMENT BOARD.

Park Bldg., 729 S.W. Alder St., Portland 5, Ore., not later than May 1, 1946, as required by chapter 401, Oregon Laws 1945, if they elect to exclude their employees from the state retirement system.

Red Heads Triumph Over Roseburg Alumni, 40 to 26

In a slow-paced game Tuesday night, the girls of Olson's All-American Red Heads defeated Coach Hod Turner's men, 40-26 at basketball. The men led the scoring during the first half and the girls missed the basket on many of their shots. In the second half the girls staged a few tricky plays, and rather baffled the boys.

Scoring by quarters: Roseburg Alumni - 8 18 24 26 Red Heads - 6 14 32 40

Meeting Advanced West States Unity, Rep. Gile Says

Definite progress in cooperative legislation between the 11 far western states was achieved at the Interstate Cooperation Commission meeting held Feb. 15 and 16 in Salt Lake City, reports State Representative Robert C. Gile.

Representative Gile, as a member of an Interstate Committee on the legislative program, attended the meeting in company with E. C. Frisbie, Baker; Chairman W. W. Chadwick, Salem; Carl Francis, Dayton. Also in attendance from Oregon was George Aiken, budget director.

The commission is particularly determined to state rights, Gile said. Groundwork also was laid for uniformity of laws in which all states are interested, and improvement in the public welfare program. Further details will be worked out at interstate sessions of attorney generals and secretaries of state.

"Working through state legislators and state delegations in Congress, I believe the commission will be able to develop many worthwhile projects," Gile said.

OPA will observe holiday—The local OPA office will be closed tomorrow in observance of Washington's birthday, it was announced.

Civil Action Aired Here; Suit for Damages Lost

Civil action for money alleged to be due on account took the attention of the jury today in the second case on the docket of the circuit court term which began Monday. The case is that of R. F. Pfister vs. Robert McClintock.

Pfister is a feed merchant at Drain. Yesterday, the jury delivered a verdict in favor of the defendant in a civil action for damages growing out of an alleged assault and battery. The case was that of Frank Campbell vs. E. J. Smith, Myrtle Creek residents.

How to Use Meat to Make Breakfasts Hearty

Cold days call for hearty breakfasts, and one of the best ways I've found to make a breakfast substantial is to include some meat in the menu. Here are some favorite winter breakfasts that will also make a special hit for Sunday brunch.

COLD MORNING SPECIAL
Tomato Juice with Lemon Wedge
Hot Apple Pancakes Rolled Around Sausage Links
Sausage Links
Warmed Syrup Coffee or Cocoa

APPLE PANCAKES—To 2 cups of prepared pancake flour, add 2 eggs and 1 1/2 cups milk beaten together. Blend well. Stir in 1 cup finely chopped apples and 2 tablespoons melted shortening. Drop by tablespoonfuls onto greased griddle or frying pan. Bake until bubbles break; turn and bake until golden brown. Wrap each pancake around a well-cooked sausage link. Serve hot with warmed syrup. Serves 6.

START THE DAY RIGHT!
Baked Winter Pears
Broiled Lamb Chops and Hashed Brown Potatoes
Toasted English Muffin
Coffee or Milk

HAshed BROWN POTATOES—Melt 3 tablespoons shortening in a heavy frying pan; add 3 cups chopped or finely cut cooked potatoes, heaping them toward the center and away from the edges of the pan; season to taste. Cover with a lid or heavy plate; press down so that cover is right on top of the potatoes. Place a box of salt or rock on top to give pressure. Cook slowly and without turning for 15 to 20 minutes, or until crusty brown. Turn out onto a warm plate. Cut into 4 or 6 pie-shaped wedges to serve.

SAUTEED KIDNEYS—Skin, split in half lengthwise, and remove white tubes and tissues from 6 to 12 veal or lamb kidneys. Wash thoroughly. Cut into thin slices and cover with flour, salt and pepper. Sauté in drippings about 3 minutes or until browned. Add 1 cup hot water and cook about 5 minutes, or until thickened, stirring constantly. Serve hot. Serves 6.

HELP HURRY PEACETIME GOODS!

The end of the war did not stop the need for turning in waste fats. Many important products—nylons, tires, soaps and elastic, to name but a few—require the use of scarce industrial fats and oils in their manufacture. Safeway meat sections continue to pay four cents per pound for the waste fats you bring in.
