WHY?

Well, this is the situation: There will be an election this fall in which ALL the members of the house of representatives and a third of the members of the senate must run the gauntlet of public opinion.

PEOPLE are getting tired of deadlock and stagnation. They want to go places and do things. They want to collect on the promises of the brave new world.

A CLOUD appears today in the sky

—no larger at the moment than a man's hand. But it has an ominous color.

Washington dispatches tell us the labor department is launching an attempt to beat back a rising tide of unemployment that is expected to leave SIX MILLION JOBLESS by June 30.

THIS is America's position today:

We have the raw materials. We have the labor. We have the INDUSTRIAL PLANT—the greatest since the world began; unscarred by war.

We have ALL THE MAKINGS of prosperity—EXCEPT CONFIDENCE. The feeling is growing swiftly that confidence is lacking because of the blundering ineptness of the government in Washington.

SUPPOSE the Republicans should win control of congress this November. Suppose they should BREAK THE DEADLOCK and open the door to the brave new world we're all yearning for and touch off the long period of prosperity that is practically inevitable if we can get intelligent leadership. What will happen then?

THE answer is as plain as the nose on your face.

The Democratic party, New Dealism and all, will be as dead as the Democratic party was after 1930.

IT ISN'T surprising that things are beginning to POP in Washington.

It seems quite probable that the members of the sprawling, BRAWLING bureaucracy that today is the federal government may be so frightened by the picture of present events as to be ready to pour on the steam to get the results that people are obviously wanting.

IDEAS ON HOUSING

IDEAS ON HOUSING

Demonstrating truth of the old saying, "Necessity is the mother of invention," a good many ideas are beginning to circulate as possible solutions to the current housing shortage.

For instance, Calvin Hunt, out Elgarose way, under the slogan, "The Old Timers Did It; Why Can't We?" is proposing construction of log houses.

The idea behind a log house is that if you can't get the lumber cut from a tree, then use the whole tree.

D. W. Keasey, who lives just north of the Roseburg city limits, also has a solution to the housing problem. Keasey has invented an interlocking, prefabricated house to be manufactured from plywood.

Keasey estimates his plywood houses can be built in a price range from $800 for one and two room structures, to $1200-$1500 for four and five-room buildings.

We read a few days ago how a group of returned Seabees had formed a cooperative concern and were raiding junk yards to obtain materials with which to build shelters.

Pessimistic experts are wailing that the housing problem can't be licked, but ingenious Americans haven't admitted defeat yet when confronted with an emergency.

Rural Women Erect Guideposts

Never a day passes without people coming to the News-Review office to seek directions in locating some advertiser in a rural community.

Members of the social club have erected signposts at the intersections of these roads with the main artery, giving the names of families residing along each of the roads.

If this idea, executed by the women of the Happy Hour Club, spreads as it should, the whole county may have its guideposts before the City of Roseburg gets around to the task of installing street signs.

High Officer to Attend Birthday Fete of VFW Post

Louis A. Starr, senior vice commander-in-chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, is expected in Roseburg March 17, to attend a district meeting of the organization in the Elks ballroom.

When Starr visits Patrick W. Kelley Post, No. 2468, in Roseburg, will observe its birthday, and arrangements are being completed for a banquet.

Resents Attacks On Late President

In the last few months I have been reading several letters to the editor pertaining to the late president, Mr. Roosevelt. These criticisms were very deep, and it disgusted me greatly to think people, such as Mr. Bennett, could speak of him in that manner.

Mr. Bennett stated that it was time to wake up. But I think that we have been awake since the term of Herbert Hoover. Maybe when the nation realizes the great qualities of leadership that Mr. Roosevelt gave to us, they will then be different in their decisions.

Baby Clothes, Crib Wanted by Family Hit by Fire Loss

Baby Clothes, Crib Wanted by Family Hit by Fire Loss

Does any one have any old baby clothes or a crib he can spare? The Mrs. Handly family of Glendale, whose house burned to the ground this week, would appreciate it if he could have them for his three-month-old daughter.

The Handly family occupied a big, old farm house at Reuben, a few miles north of Glendale. The fire which destroyed the house was caused by an overheated chimney flue and an accumulation of soot which ignited the dry, shingle roof.

All of the family possessions were destroyed, including clothing, furniture and building materials which Handly was accumulating for the construction of a new house.

Handly's wife and baby daughter are living with neighbors. The baby sleeps in a dresser drawer. Handly said if he could have clothes and a crib for his baby, he could care for the baby, at least, he is comfortably fixed until he earns enough to build a new house.

The Handly's may be reached by mail at Box 183, Glendale. He now works for the Southern Pacific in the building crew. He may be reached through his foreman, H. T. Conner, or through the Southern Pacific agent who will know where the "b. and b. crew" is working.

A freak of the fire, Handly said, was the jar fall of coins they were saving for the baby. It's now just a lump of silver.
