Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wiley, Jr.

Miss Marguerite Hampton, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hampton, Roseburg, became the bride of Earl Wiley, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wiley, Sr., Roseburg, at an impressive candlelight ceremony February 4 at the Methodist Church in this city. Rev. W. A. MacArthur performed the double ring ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening in the presence of 300 relatives and friends.

White cathedral candles, in tall candelabra and baskets of daffodils, iris, acacia and white snapdragons decorated the altar. Mrs. Earl Wiley, Sr., had charge of the decorations.

Proceeding the ceremony, Miss Betty Mae Quist, groomed in a blue formal, with a corsage of yellow carnations, and Miss Marjorie Roberts, dressed in a pink formal with matching pink carnation corsage, lighted the candles.

Miss Ruth Collett sang, "The Sunshine of Your Smile," accompanied by Mrs. Paul Geddes at the organ, who played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bride party to take their places at the altar and at the close of the ceremony, played Mendelssohn's recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a floor length gown of broadened marquisette, fashioned on Princess lines. Her finger-tip wedding veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of carnations and rosebuds centered with a large orchid.

Mrs. Victor Kelley, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor and was charming in a pink formal gown. Miss Jean Wiley, sister of the bridegroom, wearing a blue formal, and Miss Mae Matlock, wearing a pink formal, were bridesmaids. The bride's attendants carried nosegays of pastel blossoms. Gayle Geddes and Nancy Gwenn Smith, flower girls, were daintily in blue formal dresses and both carried baskets of red rose petals.

Elwood McLaughlin acted as best man and Roy J. Smith and Robert Smith were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a blue suit with navy accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a red suit with black accessories. Both wore sashes of gardenias.

A wedding reception followed in the church parlors. The wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom and served by Mrs. Ray Hampton. Assisting in serving were: Mrs. Edward MacCall, Mrs. Loren Harvey, Mrs. Hugh Harrison, Mrs. Phyllis Jenne, and Mrs. Frank Sirov. Miss Betty Quist had charge of the guest book. Background music was played by Mrs. F. G. Burr and vocal solos included: "I Love You Truly," sung by Miss Ruth Collett; "At Dawning," sung by Mrs. A. J. Ellison; and a duet, "Always," sung by Mrs. W. Howard Pattison and Attorney Paul Geddes.

The bride was a student at Roseburg Senior High School until her marriage. The bridegroom was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and served three years with the U. S. forces in the African and European Theater of Operations. He recently received his honorable discharge and is now employed at Patchett's Associated Oil Company station on South Stephens street. They are making their home in Umpqua Park.

Mrs. W. R. Brown and Mrs. E. L. Knapp were hostess chairmen, assisted by Mrs. Jean Everett, Mrs. B. W. Taylor, Mrs. A. E. Kent and Miss Helen Casey. The long tables were beautifully decorated with bouquets of heather and sprays of ivy.

Mrs. A. J. Geddes, president, was in charge with Mrs. W. A. MacArthur, chaplain, giving the invocation and Mrs. Homer W. Grew accompanying the community sing.

Covers were placed for fifty members and the following special guests: Mrs. Claude Kesner and Mrs. Ferguson, of Sutherlin; Mrs. Harold Jeffers, Mrs. J. M. Boyles, Mrs. Adeline Olsen, Mrs. L. K. Cornwell, Mrs. Burdette Leas, Mrs. Thomas McNeill and Mrs. W. Howard Pattison.

The club was the recipient of a very beautiful myrtlewood gavel and plate given as a gift from Mrs. Randolph Flagg, who has been a very prominent member of the club during her residence in Roseburg. Mrs. Flagg gave a series of charming travelogues at club meetings last year and her work in the organization has been greatly appreciated and enjoyed by the membership.

Mrs. Ford very graciously presented her guest artists on the program.

Lt. Col. Agnes H. McKernan, New York City, who has been with the Salvation Army for 33 years and for 20 years has been doing prison reform work in 11 eastern states, gave a short talk outlining the work she is engaged in and telling of her association with the national federations of business women and national federation of women's clubs. She recently attended the national conference of the latter at Washington, D. C., and was among the 200 guests entertained at tea at the White House. She stressed the national federation's new project, "Conservation of Youth" program, which is the theme of all federated women's clubs in the United States. She remained in Roseburg overnight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kohlhagen, Sr., and left Wednesday for San Francisco.

Mrs. W. Howard Pattison, charming soprano, sang two very beautiful solos, "Love Came Calling" and "The Little Old Garden," accompanied by Mrs. Thomas McNeill. Mrs. McNeill, who is a brilliant pianist, played two piano solos, "Pastorale Theme and Variations" by Mozart and "Leibestrud" by Fritz Kreisler. Mrs. McNeill, a newcomer to Roseburg, is being enthusiastically welcomed by music lovers. She studied music four years in Weimer, Germany after which she taught piano in Spokane and did accompanying.

Mrs. Claude Kesner, a newcomer to Sutherlin, is a creative writer and gave the main address of the afternoon, which was very interesting and charmingly outlined. She told of her experience in the field of creative writing and completed her talk by reading one of her own stories, which was greatly enjoyed by the members and guests. Mrs. Kesner was graduated from University of Washington and also received her masters degree from there, after which she taught dramatics at the Junior College in Oakland, Calif.

The entire program was one of the very finest to be enjoyed by the club in many years and the club expressed its appreciation to the guest artists and Mrs. Ford.
