Marry by Candlelight

Amidst a background of tall baskets of jonquils, acacia and snapdragons and tall yellow tapers, Patricia Ruth Amorde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Amorde, former Superior, Wis., residents, now of Sutherlin, Ore., was united in marriage to Wayne Kenton Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Rice of Oakland, Oregon.

The candlelight ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Matthews at the Sutherlin Methodist church at 5 o'clock Saturday, Feb. 2nd. The double ring ceremony being used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore the traditional white satin dress with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hand, the full skirt ending in a long train. Her finer tin veil of net was edged with point-venise lace. She carried a white prayer book with a cascade of red roses and gardenias. Her only jewelry a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom.

Mrs. Milo Smith of Oakland was her only attendant. She wore a frock of pink sheer, and carried a nosegay of stephanotis, narcissus and acacia with headress of narcissus and stephanotis.

Delmar Rice, brother of the groom, was best man, Jack Amorde and Milo Smith were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a black afternoon dress with aqua and sequin trim with accessories to match. The mother of the groom also wore an afternoon dress of poudre blue crepe with silver accents. Both wore corsages of gardenias.

Proceeding the ceremony, Miss Mary Cooper as soloist, accompanied by Evelyn Meserve, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Oh Perfect Love."

A reception for seventy guests followed at the Sutherlin Hotel dining room. The bride's table had a three tiered wedding cake as centerpiece. Surays of acacia and fern, and tall yellow tapers were used throughout the room.

The couple left for a trip to Crescent City, California. For travel she wore a cocoa brown suit with matching shoes, bag and gloves. Her hat of winter white with nailhead trim and gold colored coat completed her ensemble.

Mrs. Rice is a graduate of Superior Central High School and has attended the University of Oregon for the past year, where she met Mr. Rice who is majoring in business administration.

Guests included former Superior, Wisconsin, residents and relatives and friends from Eugene, Portland, Beaverton, Gaston, Yoncalla and Roseburg.

Marry on February 25th

Miss Eleanor Moran, lovely daughter of Mrs. Jane Moran, Roseburg, became the bride of William C. Gilbreath, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Gilbreath, of Roseburg, at an impressive ceremony at ten o'clock Monday morning, February 25, at St. Joseph's Catholic parish.

The bride was charming in a soldier blue suit with navy blue accessories. Her corsage was a large orchid. Mr. and Mrs. Dale Crawford, of Portland, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, were attendants.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. The lace-covered table was centered with a tiered wedding cake and flanked by tall yellow tapers. White ribbons formed streamers from the chandelier to the sides and ends of the table. The cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom. Those present were: Mrs. Jane Moran, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Gilbreath, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Crawford, of Portland; Mrs. M. C. Bowker, Mrs. Loyale Crawford, of Portland; Michael Murphy, James Moran, Miss Betty McNeerney, Mrs. Maud McNeerney and Tom Moran, of Pasadena, Calif.

During the reception Mrs. Dale Crawford sang a group of numbers, accompanied by Mrs. McNeerney.

Following a honeymoon to points north, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbreath will make their home at their ranch on the North Umpqua river near Glide. The bride attended school in North Dakota and prior to her marriage, was employed in the office of Dr. G. C. Finlay in Roseburg and later worked in Pasadena, Calif., at Cal-Tech. The bridegroom attended Roseburg Senior High School and served 39 months with the 41st division of the U. S. Army in the South Pacific. He had the rating of a sergeant at the time of his honorable discharge from service.
