Air Rides Prizes In Sales Contest

With free airplane rides offered as prizes, pupils in the Roseburg grade schools are engaged in a ticket sales contest in connection with two basketball games scheduled by the Roseburg Recreation Program for March 7 and March 16.

The Roseburg Veterans will play the Grants Pass Hoppers, also a veterans' team, at the senior high gymnasium, March 7, and will play a return game with Rubenstein's, of Eugene, March 16. Proceeds from the two games will be used to equip and supervise summer playgrounds and to supervise swimming activities.

The City Parent-Teacher Association is cooperating with the recreational committee in advance ticket sales. Students who win in the sales contest will be furnished free airplane rides if parental consent is obtained. If parental objection is met, prizes of equivalent value will be presented.

Gift, Not Loan, to Britain Advocated by Ex-Envoy

PALM BEACH, Fla., March 5.—(P)—The United States should give the proposed $4,000,000,000 assistance to Great Britain as an outright gift rather than a loan, lest the British "be driven into the arms of communism," Joseph P. Kennedy, former U. S. ambassador to Britain said here yesterday.

"We have already spent about 200 billions in a war we were told would save civilization, and tained the Tillicum Bridge Club Tuesday.
