To Be Here Tuesday Night

General Patoff Don Cossack Chorus.

Miss Gladys H. Strong, president of the Roseburg Community Concert Association, has announced that all arrangements are made for the first appearance of the world-famous Don Cossack Chorus in Roseburg to be heard Tuesday night, March 12, at 8:15 o'clock at the Junior High School. The chorus, consisting of 27 members under the direction of Nicholas Kostukoff, will wear the military uniform of the Cossack soldier and will present a program of all types of Russian songs and dances. Probably no other chorus in the world has received the acclaim given these famous singers. They have traveled all over the world and in addition to making some 1,500 concert appearances, they have made radio appearances for Libby-Owens-Ford, Coca Cola and RCA Victor.

Roseburg Association members feel especially fortunate to secure so publicized a concert for this season and officers of the organization have been highly complimented for their endeavors and success in bringing many great artists to this city.

American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By Mrs. Claude Baker
Meeting March 5 at the 100F hall, a host of Legion and auxiliary members followed their respective business meetings with a social hour of music, dancing, cards and refreshments. The Legion Commander Vic Miceli has announced that these social hours will continue every two weeks. The Legion is meeting each Tuesday night now but the auxiliary plans to continue to meet only every first and third Tuesday of the month. Next March 19, another social has been planned and on March 26 the auxiliary will entertain the Legion on their birthday. The program and entertainment for the birthday is in charge of Mrs. Vera McClintock Jones. We understand that she has engaged the Frear-Rhoden orchestra. The armory has been "dated" for that night. Incidentally when we think of the recreation program and would like to congratulate Mr. Gray on the way he has taken over this program.

Friday morning the auxiliary met at the high school to present prizes to Rod Barrows and Harriet Booth as winners in the recent Americanism essay contest. Judges were Mrs. George Caskey and Mrs. Claire Allen. Essay topics were "American Citizenship, Our Responsibilities and Our Privileges." At the same hour the Legion was holding an oratorical contest at the same school. Winners will be announced later. Remember the radio program Sunday night at eight o'clock. We hope you will all give generously to your Red Cross. If you are not visited by a worker please call the Chamber of Commerce with your contribution.
