The four commercial clubs of Roseburg Senior High School, advised by Miss Ruth Roberts, held their annual banquet in the home of room of the school on Wednesday evening. Approximately 60 students were present at the banquet which was served buffet style. Tables were decorated with hyacinth, narcissi and "flying pen" place cards, appropriate to the occasion, were at each place.

Marshall Pengra, radio station of KRNR manager, speaker of the evening addressed the group on "There's a Future for the Stenographer?" In speaking to the bookkeeping and shorthand students, Pengra brought out that the work in high school is a background for future specialty work. However, he said, since more girls are interested in the combination type "secretary and receptionist" it should be emphasized more.

In the small office, Pengra continued, there are certain things that make an employee successful: (1) Ability to get along with the staff and (2) Good public contacts on the phone and over

MARY-MARTHA CLUB HAS FINE MEETING

SUTHERLIN — Mary-Martha Club of the Christian Church met in the east wing of the church on Friday, March 15, for a pot-luck dinner and short business meeting. No regular work was done as the time was occupied with completing plans for the banquet to be served Saturday evening to members of Douglas County Christian Endeavor Societies meeting in convention at the Sutherlin Church. Several of the women embroidered dish towels with the church initials, however.

The banquet plans were completed and some time was spent in arranging the new kitchen equipment, which was first installed. This equipment consists of a double drainboard, cabinet and sink, electric stove and two sections of serving counter and cupboards.

Our thanks go to Forrest Allen, cabinet maker; to Claude Harvey and Durwood Rose, plumbers and to Edgar Patton and his helpers, electricians. These men all worked late in order to get cabinets, plumbing and electrical work finished.

Members of the club present were: Mrs. Sarepta Sauerborn, Mrs. Florence Cook, Mrs. Mary Barker, Mrs. Dorothy Longbrake, Mrs. Ada Abene, Mrs. Grace Pope, Mrs. Katie Graham, Mrs. Ruth Lewis, Mrs. Naomi Murdoch, Mrs. Juanita Fisher, Mrs. Vivian Nicolson, Mrs. Mary Epps and Mrs. Verna Cooper.
