DOUBLE WEDDING IS PERFORMED, FEB. 16

DAYS CREEK — One of the most beautiful weddings of the season was solemnized Saturday evening, February 16, at the Christian Church in Myrtle Creek when Miss Josephine Wright became the bride of Dean Powell, and her younger sister, Miss Marjorie Wright became the bride of Dorwin Powell. The Rev. E. W. Powell, father of the bridegrooms, performed the beautiful and impressive double ring ceremony.

The brides, escorted by their fathers, were preceded by the matron of honor, Mrs. Arthur Brown, sister of the grooms, and the maid of honor, Miss Maxine Wright of Corvallis, sister of the brides, to the beautifully decorated altar, backed by a floral arch which was flanked by cathedral candles in tall candelabra and huge baskets of daffodils, aescia and white carnations with streamers of white ribbon. They were met at the altar by the bridegrooms and their best men, Earl Powell of Scottsburg and Leo Powell of the U. S. Army. Preceding the ceremony the brides were lighted by Ethel Hughes and Georgia Frenz.

Georgia Frenz, accompanied by Ethel Hughes, sang "I Love You Truly," while Winnie Chaney sang "Always," accompanied by Alice Carter who also played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin while the bride party took their places and Mendelssohn's "Recessional" at the close of the ceremony. Other organ selections were played by Mrs. Carter during the ceremony. Ushers were Lawrence Michaels of Canyonville and Ernest Weeks of Myrtle Creek.

The brides wore most charming in street length dresses of winter white, wool with topaz button trim. Their hats were of white straw with veils of black and they each carried a white Bible with nosegays of Tallamans roses with white satin streamers. The matron of honor wore a blue frock in street length, her corsage being of pale yellow carnations shaded to pink as was the maid of honor's, who was dressed in a street length coral colored dress. Both the brides' mother and the bridegrooms' mother were dressed in navy blue with touches of tea rose. Their corsages were pink carnations, while Mrs. J. D. Wright and Mrs. R. K. Paris, grandmothers of the brides had corsages of camellias, presented to them by the bridegrooms. The men of the bride party all had boutonnieres of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors which were very lovely with greens and flowers forming the decorative motif. There were two very beautifully decorated wedding cakes which were cut by the brides and grooms. The serving table was covered with a gorgeous lace table cloth which was sent from Germany by Dorwin Powell while he was stationed with the Army in that country. Mrs. Oren Ledgerwood had charge of the reception while Mrs. Dorothy Welch of Medford and Miss Betty Ady had charge of the gifts. Miss Lillian Weeks and Miss Joyce Ady were in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Northrup Hamilton of Portland, Mrs. Earl Weseman of Tillamook, Mrs. Carl M. Hill of Canyonville, all aunts of the brides, assisted with the serving. One hundred and fifty friends and relatives were present at the wedding and reception.

Following the reception both couples left for short wedding trips after which they returned to Myrtle Creek. Mr. and Mrs. Dean Powell are making their home there while Mr. and Mrs. Dorwin Powell plan to live in Roseburg as soon as their apartment is in readiness.

The brides, who are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wright, both graduated from the local high school. Miss Josephine later attended Oregon State following which she was employed in the office of the Veterinary Department on the campus before accepting employment in Myrtle Creek with the Picco Logging Company in their office there.

She is now employed in a similar capacity with the Fir Manufacturing Co. Miss Marjorie, since completing high school, had been employed by the Citizens State Bank until it was purchased by the United States National Bank and has remained with the latter. Both the girls have been very prominent in 4-H work having gained not only county and state but also national recognition for the work they have done.

Both Dorwin and Dean Powell graduated from the Cottage Grove High School, later entering military service, the former serving with the armed forces in the European theater while the latter spent many months in the Pacific theater. They are the sons of the Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Powell of Myrtle Creek.

Prior to the wedding date many lovely affairs were held in compliment to the brides-elect. One of the larger parties being held at the home of Mrs. Archie Ferguson when Mrs. Ferguson, assisted by Mrs. Lawrence Michaels and Mrs. Earl Weseman, entertained with a delightful miscellaneous shower. After the honorees had opened their many beautiful and useful gifts the hostesses served delicious refreshments to the two honored guests and Mrs. Pete Ulam, Mrs. J. D. Wright, Mrs. John Gross, Mrs. Norman Henigen, Mrs. Ella Higgins, Mrs. Ray Wright, Mrs. Cecil Graham, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. J. A. Unger, Mrs. Delbert Poole, Mrs. Sam Burgess, Mrs. Lauren MacEwan, Mrs. H. L. DeWald, Mrs. Emma DeWald, Mrs. Stan Quimby, Mrs. Fritz Snyder, Mrs. R. A. Moore, Mrs. Bud Gaulke, Mrs. N. N. Woods, Mrs. Walter Hutchinson, Mrs. Jessie DeWald, Mrs. W. Frank Brown, Mrs. LeRoy Northway, Mrs. Anne Worthington, Mrs. E. K. Paris, Mrs. Wade Worthington, Mrs. Eugene Brady, Mrs. D. W. Gill, Mrs. Wm. Cox and Mrs. E. W. Powell.
