Miss Frances Irving, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben B. Irving, became the bride of Thomas H. Hubbard, of Anacortes, Wash., at a beautiful wedding held in the First Baptist Church February 15. Rev. H. P. Sconce performed the ceremony in the presence of a large group of relatives and friends.

Proceeding the ceremony, candles were lighted by Mrs. Carlick Berry and Miss Beverly Hatfield. Miss Catherine Irving, sister of the bride, played the introduction of sacred music and accompanied Miss Mary Apra, who sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Because," followed by the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin.

The bride was very lovely in a white satin gown with finger-tip veil. She carried a formal bouquet of pale pink carnations arranged with net. Miss Ruth Heck was her only attendant and wore a yellow net gown and carried a bouquet similar to the bride's. Herman Steeck was best man and ushers were: Walter G. Paul, Eugene R. Holcomb, George E. Hughes and Ervin Stephens. The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School in 1944 and since then has been a student at the Bible Institute of Los Angeles. The bridegroom received his education in western Washington schools, before entering the Army for service. At present he is employed at Anacortes, Wash., where the couple will make their home.

Out-of-town guests attending included: Mrs. J. T. Hubbard, Longview, Wash., mother of the bridegroom; Miss Cloydene Dargatzis, Springfield, Mass.; Mr. R. Turnbull, Salem; Catherine L. Irving, S. L. Patuxent River, Maryland; Mrs. W. Worthington and daughter, Beverly, of Days Creek, and Mr. and Mrs. V. K. Holcomb and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Holcomb, Kellogg.

Presents Concert

"Console Melodies" was heard over the city of south San Francisco, Sunday evening, March 17, when Betty (Mrs. Glen) Caldwell presided at the console in St. Paul's Methodist Church and the melodies were broadcast over the chimes system recently installed in the church.

Mrs. Caldwell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Marsters of Roseburg. She attended Lind College and Oregon State College. For one year she was organist at the First Methodist Church in Roseburg. She has been active in musical circles, both instrumental and vocal, since moving to south San Francisco two years ago with her husband, Glen Caldwell. She was assistant organist to Theodore E. Jensen at St. Paul's Church and is at present a member of the choir, where she often acts as soloist. She has a clear true soprano voice and has given pleasure to churchgoers many times during the last year.

The console organ in the church is the one made famous by Paul Cason on his "Bridge to Dreamland" program.

Following the concert, a fellowship tea was given in honor of Mrs. Caldwell in the church parlors. Both Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell received the guests.

The program included: "Song of Sadness," Sibyllus; "Morning Mood," Grieg; "The Holy City," Adams; "Evening Star," Wagner; "Pilgrim's Song of Hope," Barnie.

"If You Are But a Dream," R. H. Briston; "The Waltz You Saved For Me," King; "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows," Carroll; "When I Grow Too Old to Dream," Romberg; "Indian Love Call," Friml.

"To a Lily," Hodson; "Last Night," Kjerfve; "At Dawning," Cadman; "Poeme," Fibich; "In Deepening Shadows," Stoughton; "Londonderry Air," Old Irish Melody; "I'll Take You Home Again," Kathleen; Westendorf; "Did Your Mother Come From Ireland," Kennedy.

"Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," Bland; "When the Moon Comes Over the Mountain," Woods; "Love's Old Sweet Song," Molloy; "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," Naegeli.

B. P. W. C. HAS DELIGHTFUL MEETING ON MONDAY EVENING

The business and Professional Women's Club held a delightful meeting Monday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall with Ruth Roberts, president, in charge. Alvia Wetherell gave a report on plans for the district conference to be held in Roseburg April 6-7. There will be a banquet at the Umpqua Hotel Saturday evening and a noon luncheon at the Rainbow Grill Sunday. Business sessions will be held at the I. O. O. F. hall Sunday morning.

Frieda Child gave a report on the Red Cross dance and stated that ticket sales were far in advance of last year's sale and that the dance was exceptionally well-attended. She reported that the club was especially indebted to the dance committee: Joe Thompson, City Delivery; Jack Saunders and H. B. Carter.

Ina Farnsworth gave a talk on "Seeing Yourself as Others See You." Refreshments were served by Ina Farnsworth, Elnor Sherck and Mary Peterson. The table was lovely with a centerpiece of spring flowers. Those present were: Aurvella M. Green, a guest, and Helen Saar, Vivian Logsdon, Elnor Sherck, Edna Helgeson, Golda Nickell, Evaloe Russell, Stella Spencer, Alvia Wetherell, Joy Wampler, Florence Clark, Ruth Roberts, Ina Farnsworth, Mary Peterson and Frieda Child.

ROTARYANS ENJOY LUNCHEON MEETING AT RAINBOW GRILL

The Rotaryans enjoyed a noon luncheon Thursday at the Rainbow Grill. Covers were placed for Freda Lund, Elizabeth Runyan and her daughter-in-law, Alexis Runyan, Lenora Page, Laura Iles, Kitty Collier, Dorothy Jacklin, Eileen Meyers, Marjette Powers, Verna Denton, Nadine Stoop, Edith Ott, Johanna Hansen, Lesta Shoemaker, Ann Storrs, Clara Knight, Beulah Roach, Harriet Turner, Cleo Hiatt, Ruth McNeill and Mary Marshall.

The group will hold its next meeting April 25.

W. C. T. U. HAS INTERESTING MEETING WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The Roseburg W. C. T. U. met Wednesday afternoon at the First Presbyterian Church parlors with Mrs. H. D. Knigge, president, in charge. Rev. H. P. Sconce gave the invocation and led the devotions on the topic, "The Meaning of a Baby's Cry."

Mrs. Arthur Marsh, Douglas County president, reported on the mid-year state officers executive meeting which she attended last week in Portland. She emphasized the educational fund for the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis and the new chapel building fund. Mrs. Fred L. Southwick, state speech contest chairman, reported on the sessions she attended at the mid-year executive meeting in Portland.

Mrs. Maude Connelly gave a temperance reading on "Pickled People." Jessie Waggoner sang, "He Came To Me One Day," accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Knox. Mrs. James Vowel was welcomed into the organization as a new member.

The group voted to sponsor a silver tea this spring, the date and place of which will be announced later. Delicious refreshments were served at the tea hour by Mrs. W. J. Adair, Mrs. Fred L. Southwick, Mrs. Ben Zenor and Mrs. Fred Fisher. The table was beautifully decorated with colorful spring flowers. The meeting closed with the W. C. T. U. benediction.

The next meeting will be April 24 at two o'clock at the Baptist Church.

BETTY PATTISON AND JOSEPH BELFORD MARRY IN OLYMPIA, WASH.

In the presence of friends and relatives, Miss Betty Pattison, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Pattison of Roseburg, Ore., became the bride of Joseph Harper Belford, son of Mrs. Margaret Belford, Du Pont, Wash., at 9:30, March 22, in St. Michael's Church, Olympia, Wash. The Rev. Father Richard Queen performed the ceremony.

Miss Pattison was especially beautiful in a fuchsia and white ensemble. She carried a gardenia and rose bouquet on a white prayer book—a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Monica Joanne Belford, charming sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid and John McCutchen acted as best man.

Both Mrs. Margaret Belford, mother of the groom and Miss Monica Joanne were street length outfits with corsages that carried out the color scheme of fuchsia and white.

Parents of the bride were unable to attend the wedding. Immediately following the ceremony, the bridal party went to the Hotel Olympian for a delicious wedding brunch. Mr. and Mrs. Belford are at home to their many friends at 10th and Adams in Olympia where the former expects to continue his education in the near future at St. Martin's College.

MID-WEEK BIBLE CLASS HAS ENJOYABLE POTLUCK LUNCHEON AND SHOWER

The Mid-Week Bible Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church held a delightful potluck luncheon Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. A. Sylwester with Mrs. J. Leonard as co-hostess. Two tables, beautifully arranged with pink and blue hollyhocks were used to seat the guests. A very lovely pine bowl, carved by J. Leonard, was used for the floral arrangements of daffodils and spirea gracing the piano.

The members and guests contributed to a fund, which was placed in a pink and blue decorated basket and presented with a lovely corsage of pink and white carnations to the guest of honor, Mrs. Russell Kaine.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Kaine, guest of honor; Mrs. A. Coenenberg, Mrs. C. Gorthy, Mrs. A. Rietman, Mrs. E. Rogitz, Mrs. R. Weigman and son, Bobby; Mrs. C. Bennett, Mrs. L. Murphy, Mrs. V. Andraeff, Mrs. A. Erny, Mrs. L. Voigt, Mrs. M. Vang and children, Kathryn, Larry and Barbara; Mrs. L. Wilson, Rev. W. A. Sylwester and sons, Robert, John, Milton and Richard; Mrs. R. Hebard and daughter, Judy; Mrs. M. Richardson, Mrs. E. Gaston, Mrs. J. Feldkamp and the hostesses, Mrs. Sylwester and Mrs. Leonard.

Interesting games and visiting were enjoyed during the social hour. The class will meet at two o'clock April 11 at the home of Mrs. J. Feldkamp in the Kohlhaugen apartments. All members and friends are most cordially invited to be present.

INTER-SECT STUDY CLUB MEETS AT SALAD-LUNCHEON AT PATTISON HOME TUESDAY

Mrs. W. Howard Pattison very graciously entertained the Inter-Sect Study Club at a lovely one o'clock salad-luncheon at her home Tuesday. Narcissus and spirea formed a pretty motif for the table. Covers were placed for: Mrs. Paul Geddes, Mrs. Jay Young, Mrs. George Churchill, Mrs. Alva Laws, Mrs. Bruce Melis, Mrs. Theo Bond, Mrs. C. M. Stark and the hostess, Mrs. Pattison.

The afternoon's program on "Claire Booth Luce" was very interesting presented by Mrs. Theo Bond.

The club will meet at a one o'clock desert-luncheon April 9 at the home of Mrs. B. B. Hampton with Mrs. Pattison in charge of the program.

MR. AND MRS. MCCLINTOCK ENTERTAIN AT LOVELY DINNER ON SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McClintock entertained at a very lovely five o'clock dinner at their attractive home on North Jackson Street Sunday. Magnolias formed a very beautiful motif for the table where covers were arranged for Judge and Mrs. C. E. Wimberly and their son and daughter-in-

Vows Exchanged by Candlelight

Miss Vivian Miller, beautiful daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Carl F. Miller, of Twin Rocks, Ore., became the bride of Sgt. Gerald Dunagan, son of Rev. and Mrs. Roy V. Dunagan, of Emporia, Kansas, March 13 at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Attorney and Mrs. Paul Geddes, on East Douglas street. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father at five o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of only the immediate relatives and a few close friends.

The lighted fire in the fireplace and tall cathedral candles furnished the lighting for the ceremony. Azaleas decorated the mantle and large baskets of daffodils and early spring blossoms flanked the improvised altar.

Proceeding the ceremony, Mrs. Paul Geddes played "Always" and followed by playing the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin. At the close of the ceremony, she played Mendelssohn's Wedding recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Attorney Paul Geddes, was very beautiful in a floor-length gown of white satin, fashioned on Princess lines with leg-of-mutton sleeves and a full train. She wore gardenias in her hair and carried a bouquet of shell pink carnations and white lilies.

Miss Beverly Kruse, of Roseburg, was maid of honor and was charming in a pastel-colored blue taffeta formal gown. She carried a shower bouquet of carnations. Little Gavie Geddes, niece of the bride, was flower girl and was lovely in a floor-length gown of pale blue. She carried a nosegay of carnations.

Waldo Dunagan, pharmacist mate 3-c, U. S. Navy, Wenatchee, Wash., acted as best man for his brother.

A wedding dinner followed at the Hotel Umpqua. The table was centered with an attractive arrangement of daffodils and azalea. The beautifully decorated cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom.

For traveling the bride chose a fuchsia colored suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. Following a honeymoon at Bandon by the Sea, they will make their home in Portland.

The bride is very well known in Roseburg, where she was a popular and talented member of the younger set while attending the Roseburg Senior High School. After being graduated from high school, she attended Pacific College at Newberg. The bridegroom attended Greenleaf, Idaho, Academy and Pacific College. He served three years in the U. S. Army and recently returned from service in the Philippines. He received his honorable discharge from service this month.

Resumes Work—Mrs. Freida Child has resumed her work at the Excel Dress Shop, following several days' illness at her home.

Marriage Announced

News-Review Engraving. Mrs. Earl Sherry.

YONCALLA—Mr. and Mrs. Lou Ehrlich of Hayhurst Valley announce the marriage of their daughter, Freida Irene Ehrlich, to Earl Sherry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Zeon Sherry, both of Yoncalla. The wedding took place Thursday afternoon, March 21st, at the manse of the First Presbyterian church, Roseburg, with Dr. Roach performing the ceremony. The bride wore a brown and blue suit, and brown accessories. Her corsage was of orchids. The only attendants were the bride's parents, and the groom's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Sherry left immediately after the ceremony for a short wedding trip to the coast. They will make their home just east of Yoncalla, where they will build a home this summer.

Both the bride and groom attended Yoncalla High School, the bride graduating with the class of 1945.
