Recreation Fight Card for April 5 Lists 18 Youths

At least 18 young fighters are on the card Friday night, April 5, when Roseburg Recreation presents its championship boxing bouts in the Armory, under direction of Coach Jimmie Garrison.

In the double main event, Champion Dale Guse defends his featherweight title against contender Maynard Talley, and Flyweight Champion Cecil Zachery will fight the contender, Walt Wagner. Guse and Zachery are both good fighters, Garrison said, but Guse is a "public idol at best" and he goes against a boy who is "a very clever boxer and a hard hitter with either hand."

As a sidelight to this championship bout, Garrison said he made Guse and Talley come in to practice at the Armory at different hours, because they "hate each other so," Garrison thinks that Talley is a "cinch to win."

In the semi-finals, David Harrem and Jack Wagoner are both contenders for the lightweight title; Fred Butler will fight Jack Omande, an "overrated out-of-town boy," who fought here the last time.

A special event will feature Jimmie Garrison himself exchanging blows with Sgt. Bob Zachery, who is "a mighty clever boy."

Other Bouts Listed
Another special bout will feature Larry Kvidera, aged 10, fighting tall, lanky Jack Katenmeyer, Larry, said his coach, is a wonderful little fighter with a K. O. punch. If he follows the fight game, he is a future pro champ, the coach opines.

Four blindfolded boxers, each with one glove and a can of peas which he must shake continuously, will provide comedy relief. If one of them falls, slips, or is knocked off his feet, he is disqualified. Last man standing will be the winner.

Other bouts will see Chuck Johnson, flyweight, matched against Bob Smith; Raymond Hall, at 108, fighting Jack Steinbauer. As yet unmatched are Corbett Downing, 118, and Bob Macklin, a "mighty good boy who needs a heavyweight."

Other bouts will be announced as contenders sign up with Garrison at the Armory. Matchmaker for all bouts is Garrison. Two judges will be chosen from the business and sportsmen of the city and together with the referee, will judge all fights. Ringside seats will cost $1.50.

general admission, $1; children, 50 cents, and servicemen and women, 50 cents.

THIS country is short of industrial fats, mighty short. The supply is so low that the government must decide how much fat can be released to make soap; how much for other peacetime goods. The shortage would be even worse without the wonderful help American housewives are giving by turning in used fats.

Keep saving to tide us over this emergency. It will help you get more soaps and other products you want so much.
