METHODIST CHORIST INVITES PUBLIC TO HEAR LENTEN CANTATA

The very beautiful sacred lenten cantata, "The Seven Last Words of Christ," by the famous French composer, Theodore Dubois, will be presented by the 30-voice vested choir of the Methodist Church on Good Friday evening at eight o'clock April 19 at the Church Sanctuary. The public has been most cordially invited to attend.

This traditional lenten cantata is given by choirs throughout the country during the lenten season. It encompasses music of wide variety from the soprano introduction and the first words, "Father Forgive Them, For They Know Not What They Do," and the clamoring of the mob for the crucifixion of Christ to the last lovely sustained Choral.

The choir is under the direction of Thomas McNeill with Mrs. Gordon Stewart, organist. The full program and list of soloists will be announced at a later date.

PUBLIC RELATIONS DINNER INDEFINITELY POSTPONED

The Roseburg Business and Professional Women's Club annual Public Relations dinner, announced for Saturday night, April 6, has been indefinitely postponed on account of the lack of hotel facilities for handling the affair, according to a report made today by the committee.

The banquet was to have opened the district conference here. Other conference meetings will take place as planned.
