EVELYN RAYMOND BECOMES BRIDE OF D. L. SWINGLEY AT GREAT FALLS, MONT.

Word has been received that Miss Evelyn Mildred Raymond, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Herbert Raymond of Days Creek, Ore., was married to Durin Leonard Swingley, of Heath, Montana, March 18, at the Presbyterian Church at Great Falls, Montana. The ceremony was performed by candlelight in the presence of the bridegroom's mother; his younger brother playing the wedding music and his two cousins acting as attendants.

After the exchange of wedding vows, the party enjoyed a wedding dinner, at which time the beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut.

The bride wore a beige wool suit with brown accessories and a pale pink blouse. They are at home to their friends at 614 West Boulevard, Lewistown, Montana, where the bridegroom is employed.

The bride announced her engagement to Mr. Swingley at a Valentine luncheon given in Eugene in February, at which time she resigned as president of the Eugene Business and Professional Women's Club. She resided in Eugene several years and was very active in a number of pursuits. She was graduated from Central High School in Spokane, Wash., and later attended Oregon State College. She is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority and is president of the alumna group. She has been president of the U. S. O. Junior Hostesses for two years and was a member of the pre-organization committee of the YWCA and served on the board during the last year. For the last seven years, she has been employed in the office of the Eugene Farmers' Creamery. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Lulu Swingley of Heath, Montana, and was recently discharged from military service. He served with the signal corps construction group for a year in the Yukon and later went overseas to France.

A bride of Sunday afternoon, March 31st, was Miss Joyce Davie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Davie, of London, England, who was married to Wallace P. Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus B. Wood, of Toledo, Oregon, formerly of Roseburg. The ceremony took place at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Mrs. James Wilson sang, "I Love You Truly." The bride, who was given in marriage by the bridegroom's uncle, Ernest Sharp, was lovely in a light blue suit. Her corsage was of double white gardenias. Miss Ruth Wood was maid of honor and wore a frock of blue with a corsage of pink sweetpeas. Rufus M. Wood, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

At the informal reception, which followed, the bride and bridegroom cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Cora McDonald assisted in serving. Attending the wedding were Leslie Pennie, grandfather of the bridegroom, from Alexandria, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sharp, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Romano Wood, Eugene; Mrs. Cora McDonald, Blackfoot, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Rufus M. Wood, Toledo.

The bridegroom was born in Roseburg and his father was with the Southern Pacific Company, while the family resided here. The bridegroom served with the U.
