Marry at Illinois Naval Chapel

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie S. Wilson.

Miss Beryl Lois Caskey, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Caskey, Roseburg, and Leslie Sinclair Wilson, Rdm. 2-c, U. S. N. R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley W. Wilson, of Miami, Florida, were married February 22 at nine o'clock in the morning in the Navy chapel at Great Lakes, Illinois, Chaplain Preston D. Parsons, Lt. (J. G.) U. S. N. R., performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of a few close friends.

During the ceremony, organ music was played softly. Edgar Bobo ARM 1-c, U. S. N. R., was the only attendant.

The bride was attractive in a two-piece aqua-colored dress fashioned with peplum effect and tied at the back with a large butterfly bow. Her hat was black with tiny aqua bows and her accessories were black. She wore a corsage of orchids.

Following the ceremony, a breakfast was served at the Hos-tes House at the base for the wedding party, after which the couple left for Chicago on their honeymoon. For traveling the bride chose a red dressmaker suit with black accessories.

The bride attended the local schools and was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School in 1942, after which she attended Behnke-Walker Business College in Portland, when she took a position with the United Photo Service in Portland. The bridegroom was graduated from Miami Edison Senior High School in 1941 and attended University of Miami. He enlisted in the Navy in 1942 and served with the crew on the U. S. S. Monrovia. He wears decorations representing the American Theater, European-American with one star, Asiatic-Pacific with six stars, Philippine Liberty with two stars and the Victory Medal. He is now attending radio materiel school and the couple are at home to their friends at Waukegan, Ill.

BRUCE CARTER HONORED AT BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mrs. W. H. Carter very graciously entertained at a delightful six-thirty o'clock dinner party at her beautiful home on Harvard Avenue Tuesday evening honoring her son, Bruce, on his birthday. Cherry blossoms and camellias formed a very lovely motif for the occasion.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bellows, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Collins, Miss Cecelia Watzig and Harry Harris. Gifts were presented to Mr. Carter and the evening was pleasantly spent in visiting and playing cards.

Attention of all School Districts

Your attention is called to Kentile as a floor covering in schools of all kinds. This material has been found the most practical floor covering for schools from the standpoint of durability, ease of maintenance, appearance and cost. The results of many, many installations is the reason why architects approve its use for school floors.
