FORMER ROSEBURG RESIDENTS CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

Culminating 50 years of married life, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown observed the anniversary of their wedding at the West Salem Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon, April 21st, at four o'clock. Present were their six children, Carlton, Katherine (Mrs. G. Darwin Peavy), Claude, Rachel (Mrs. Fred Fischer), Ross and Robert. Also present were four of the original wedding guests, Mrs. Ernest Wheeler, Frank Brown and Arthur Church of Camas Valley, and Mrs. Alva Brown of McKinley.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown were married at McCook, Nebraska, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whitmer. The following year the young couple left for Oregon by covered wagon. They settled at McKinley where they lived until 1930, when they moved to Roseburg, then later to West Salem. Mr. Brown was state grange deputy until his retirement a few years ago. Both Mr. and Mrs. Brown are charter members of McKinley Grange.

Unique feature of the anniversary observation was the renewal of the marriage vows of the honored couple. The Rev. Claude Brown performed the ceremony, with Mrs. Fischer acting as her mother's maid of honor. Ross acted as best man, while Robert gave the bride away.

Music was provided by Mrs. Peavy at the piano, while Carlton sang "Oh Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly." Arthur III was ring bearer and his sister, Claudia, flower girl. Grandson, Carl, played the wedding march on his violin.

DAILY DEVOTIONS DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

"Be still and know that I am God." How often we need to go aside to forget our cares and wait in quietness for the healing power of God to speak. Not in words or sounds but in the eloquence of silence. "I live: the traffic of the street. But not the white world o'er the town: I hear the guns at sunset roar, I do not hear the sun go down." When John Ruskin tells us, "There is no music in a rest, but the making of music in it," he suggests that a rest in music is related to notes that lead to it and follow it. Our tired minds and bodies need to seek quiet rest these hectic days. We need to think of the beauty of God's world, and to open our souls that He may become a part of our life. Quietness gathers calmness, and strength, and peace and beauty for the days that are ahead. We need much that comes. By being still and knowing that "God is and that He is the rewarder of those who diligently seek Him." "Drop thy still dews of quietness, Till all our strivings cease; Take from our souls the strain and stress, And let our ordered lives confess The beauty of Thy Peace."

Estate Closed

An order was issued Wednesday in probate court closing the estate of the late Cora F. Ollivant, who died several months ago at her home in the Olalla district. Mrs. Ollivant, youngest daughter of Mount Vesuvius near Naples, Italy, has been active off and on ever since Dec. 16, 1931, when it erupted and killed an estimated 18,000 people.

Anne; Mr. and Mrs. John Hodson, Albert Hammond, Dick Nickens, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Currier and Ronald and Gail; James LaRaut, Priscilla Wade and Rita Dusseau.
