Shemmaker, Mrs. Walter Allen, Mrs. L. E. Powers, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Bruce Elliott, Mrs. Dan

Tall white cathedral candles in candelabra and baskets of white narcissi and daffodils formed an impressive setting for the candlelight ceremony Sunday, April 7, when Miss Ruth Elizabeth Heck, lovely daughter of August Heck, Roseburg, became the bride of Walter G. Paul, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Paul, of Hillcrest Ranch, Roseburg, at the First Presbyterian Church. Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the nuptials at four-thirty o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of two hundred friends and relatives.

As the guests assembled, Mrs. Homer W. Grow played softly on the pipe organ and accompanied Ralph M. Church who sang, "I Love You" and "Always." Miss Beverly Hatfield, in an attractive blue formal gown, and wearing a camellia corsage, lighted the candles.

With the opening strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Grow, the bridal party advanced down the center aisle, which was decorated with white satin ribbons and bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very beautiful in a white satin brocade wedding gown fashioned with a full train and designed along princess lines. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap and fresh orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of blue iris and yellow roses. She wore a diamond bracelet, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Lou Helen Strange, student at Linfield College, McMinnville, was bridesmaid, and was attractive in a blue net formal gown. She carried a bouquet of matching blue iris. Mrs. Edward Karcher, Salem, student at Willamette University, was matron of honor, and was charming in a yellow net formal. She carried matching yellow iris. Edward Bryant was best man and Nathan Stewig was usher attendant. Church ushers were Walter Schoenleber, Donald Starnier, Eugene Holcomb and Louis Hillman Bell.

Camellia corsages were worn by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Walter G. Paul, and by the bride's aunt, Mrs. C. E. Schoenleber.

At the close of the ceremony, Mrs. Grow played Mendelssohn's Wedding recessional. A reception followed in the church parlors, at which time the beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom, was cut by Mrs. J. E. Young. Decorations for the church and reception were arranged by Mrs. W. G. Schoenleber, Mrs. Scott Layman and Mrs. William Lindell. Mrs. Earl Plummer and Mrs. W. G. Schoenleber poured and Mrs. Armour Murdoch, Mrs. Alva Laws and Mrs. Dallen Jones, assisted in the serving. Miss Ida Chamberlin had charge of the guest book.

Following the bride chose a dark gold suit with black accessories. Her top coat was yellow and she wore a corsage of roses. Following a honeymoon to Bend and other Eastern Oregon points, the couple will return to Roseburg. They are building a new home on South Deer Creek.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. Marc Conger, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Ramsdell and daughter, Valerie, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Payne, Mitchell, Oregon; and Mrs. Inez Strange, McMinnville.
