Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Osgard.

Miss June Elizabeth Goetz, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Goetz, Roseburg, became the bride of Howard E. Osgard, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Osgard, Madison, Wisconsin, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church May 1.

Rev. W. A. Sylvester performed the impressive candlelight ceremony at seven o'clock in the evening in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple. White spirea, calla lilies, iris and lilacs formed the large basket bouquets, which were flanked by tall white candles in candelabra. Mrs. W. A. Sylvester played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Clinton Gorthy, who sang, "O Perfect Love."

With the opening strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, the bride advanced to the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a white wool bolero suit with blue accessories and a blue feathered hat. She carried a white Testament topped by a corsage of Cecil Brunner roses. Mrs. Lewis Wilson, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and was charming in a delft blue suit with pink accessories and a pink feathered hat. Her corsage of Cecil Brunner roses was made by Cleo Noyer. Lewis Wilson acted as best man and Millard and Willard Rietmann were ushers.

A reception for the bridal party and relatives followed at the home of the bride's parents. The three-tiered wedding cake, baked by the bride's mother, graced the table, which was covered by a beautiful cloth, which had been a wedding gift to the bride's parents.

Following the reception the bride couple left by automobile for Florida, New York and Washington, D. C., and at the latter place will visit Mr. and Mrs. W. Goetz, before going to Madison, Wisconsin, to make their home.

Engagement Told

The bride-elect was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and attended Portland University College of Nursing and is now employed in the office of Dr. James E. Campbell. The bridegroom-elect was graduated from Days Creek High School and is now studying electrical engineering at Oregon State College.

The wedding date has been planned for September 8.

Mrs. Collins and Mr. and Mrs. Metzger.

Cards were enjoyed during the evening with Donald Metzger and Sidney Domenico winning the high scores. Later lovely refreshments were served by the two hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Domenico and Mrs. Rand.

EXECUTIVE LUNCHEON HELD BY CLUB AT HOTEL ROSE TUESDAY

The officers, directors and clubhouse board of the Roseburg Woman's Club held its May no-hostess luncheon at twelve o'clock Tuesday at the Hotel Rose. Covers were placed at an attractively appointed table for Mrs. A. J. Geddes, president; Mrs. Earl Plummer, Mrs. O. S. Chambers, Miss Estelle V. Conover, Mrs. Armour Murdoch, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Mrs. H. O. Pargeter, Mrs. Foster Butler, Mrs. I. B. Riddle, Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, Mrs. A. S. Coen, Miss Marie Martens, Mrs. Velle Broadway, Mrs. W. R. Brown and Mrs. W. A. MacArthur.

MRS. A. J. GEDDES RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT OF ROSEBURG WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. A. J. Geddes was unanimously elected president of the Roseburg Women's Club for a second year at the one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon meeting held Tuesday at the First Presbyterian Church. All 1945-46 officers, with the exception of the secretary, were re-elected and Mrs. Paul Elliott was elected to that office to take the place of Mrs. Earl Plummer, who has been an exceptionally fine officer and was unable to continue this work.

The officers for 1946-47 include: Mrs. Geddes, president; Mrs. O. S. Chambers, first vice-president; Mrs. A. F. Miceli, second vice-president; Mrs. Paul Elliott, secretary; Mrs. Armour Murdoch, corresponding secretary; Miss Estelle V. Conover, treasurer; board of directors, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Mrs. Foster Butler, Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mrs. I. B. Riddle and Mrs. H. O. Pargeter, and clubhouse board: Miss Jennie Jorey, Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, Mrs. Velle Broadway, Mrs. A. S. Coen and Miss Marie Martens.

The hostess committee included: Mrs. G. W. Marshall, Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mrs. W. H. Richardson, Mrs. J. B. Needham and Mrs. V. J. Hayman. Cecil Brunner roses and iris formed the decorations.

Mrs. Stephen Blistran was roll-call topic speaker and gave a delightful talk on pioneer women, concluding her talk with a short history of Mrs. G. R. Child, founder and first president of the Mental Culture Club of 1895, which is now the Roseburg Woman's Club, and the donor of the new clubbuilding to the Roseburg Club. Mrs. Geddes reported receiving a generous check from Mrs. Child for starting the building fund.

Mrs. S. A. Sanford was program chairman and presented one of the most charming entertainments of the year. In observance of National Music Week Mrs. R. D. Coen very beautifully sang, "Shubert's Serenade" and "The Gift Supreme" accompanied by Mrs. Homer Grow, pianist, and Mrs. Morris H. Roach, playing the violin obligato. Mrs. Roach played "Goin' Home" and "Play Fiddle Play" as violin solos and Miss Beverly Kruse, advanced piano student of Mrs. Grow's played "The Butterfly" and Liebestraum.

Attorney Harrison Winston gave an exceptionally fine talk on "Interpretation of state and federal laws pertaining to women" and Rev. W. A. MacArthur, pastor of the Methodist Church, gave a splendid talk pertaining to music and art in relation to nature. As he gave his talk, he drew a beautiful chalk picture of Twin Rocks.

Installation of the new officers will take place at the May 21 annual picnic and closing meeting of the club. The club will resume meetings in the fall.
