EDENBOWER SCHOOL HAS MAY-DAY AFFAIR

The Edenbower School held a delightful May-day affair Wednesday at the school, which was attended by a large number.

The morning program opened with group singing of "God Bless America," followed by a song, "Little Red Schoolhouse," with the solo part being sung by Edward Ware. A tap dance was given by Roberta Hansen and a playlet "Midnight in the Vegetable Garden," followed with the characters all dressed to represent vegetables. A tap dance was given by Nancy Mack, Marilyn Morris, Colleen Moore, Roberta Hansen, Vada Moore, Caralee Hickman and Nancy Guthrie. The rhythmic band played "Pop Goes the Weasel" and "Onward Christian Soldiers," and the third and fourth grand band played "Over the Heather" and "Brahm's Lullaby."

Potluck dinner was served at noon, after which Florence Thomason was crowned queen. Roberta Hansen and Susan Snyder were princesses. The three were dressed in a long white orandy gown. The school porch and steps were especially decorated in a pink and green color scheme to match the throne setting for the queen.

Spring songs were sung and later in the afternoon a baseball game was played between Rose and Edenbower teams with Rose school winning 4-2.
