RIVERSDALE GRANBE PLANS CLEAN-UP DAY

Riversdale Grange met in regular session Friday night with Eldon Ogle, master, presiding, at which time plans were announced for the annual spring clean-up day of the grounds and hall to be held today, May 21, to be followed by an evening potluck dinner. The home economics club chairman urged all members to assist with this work.

A very interesting report on the feed situation was presented by the agricultural committee, after which Anna Trozelle was elected secretary and Lester Spencer was appointed to the executive committee. Two visitors attended the meeting.

The chaplain presented a very beautiful and enjoyable program during the lecturer's hour, after which the men of the grange served chicken salad and wafers. The Pomona Grange Master, W. O. Patterson, announced a meeting to be held at Riversdale Grange Hall May 27 and all officers are requested to be present to practice the fifth degree, which will be put on at the hall May 29 for all candidates of the various granges of the county. Members desiring to attend the practice meeting are welcome.

The next regular meeting of the grange will be held at a birthday potluck dinner June 7 at the hall with the Garden Valley women in charge of the committee. Those attending are asked to bring their own table service.
