

Californian Eyed For Chief Justice Of U. S., Report

WASHINGTON, May 21.—(AP)—President Truman, according to close associates, has about made up his mind today to go outside the Supreme Court for a new chief justice.

Although the President is represented as still short of a final decision, lawmakers talking to him recently said they got the impression he hopes to find a man with no ties to any of the present factions reputedly existing in the court.

In this connection, serious White House consideration reportedly is being given to the name of Phil S. Gibson, the comparatively youthful chief justice of the California State Supreme Court. Gibson is a Democrat.

While some California office holders said they would be surprised if the chief justice appointment goes to their state, there seemed little doubt that Gibson's name is among those that Mr. Truman still is going over.

Such an appointment would put eight Democrats and only one Republican on the court, a politically unbalanced lineup which the President previously was represented as wishing to avoid.

But any action of the President to fill the top court position with a Republican might arouse some antagonism among the more vigorously partisan members of his party, despite the fact that the late President Roosevelt followed that course in naming the late Chief Justice Harlan E. Stone.

Legislators who have been watching developments closely credited former Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes and former Justice Owen J. Roberts with giving the President the background which was said to have influenced him against elevating a member of the present court.

Scared Pair
AUBURN, N. Y., May 21.—(AP)—An Auburn-Watertown border baseball league game wasn't delayed long when a frightened dog ran across the diamond. Twelve hundred fans sat goggle-eyed as they watched the pooch being chased by a rabbit, also frightened.

Pitching Champs Named
Four boys emerged Sunday as Roseburg's grade school pitching champions in a contest held prior to the Umpqua Chiefs-Canyonville baseball game at the Senior High School field. The winners: Robert Pollatt, Edenhower School; Ronald Currier, Rose School; Jack Steinhauer, Fullerton School, and Tommy Roark, Edenhower, tied for third place.
